

THE END NOT YET

NOTHING ACCOMPLISHED AT HARRISBURG MEETING.

MEN WILL NOT RESUME WORK

MITCHELL SAYS NO NEGOTIATIONS ARE PENDING.

CONFIDENT OF WINNING OUT

BISHOP FALLOWS CALLED IN AS ARBITRATOR.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—In an interview over the long-distance telephone with the News today John Mitchell, at Wilkesbarre, said:

"I can't predict when the anthracite strike will be settled. If anything is being done toward a settlement by the other side I don't know of it."

"Nothing towards a settlement was accomplished at the Harrisburg conference between Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, the presidents of the three anthracite districts, myself and others who have been trying to end the strike. We simply met and discussed the causes of the strike."

"Did Governor Stone represent J. Pierpont Morgan or any of the anthracite presidents?"

"I did not understand that he was representing anyone but himself. There is no foundation for the report that the men are to return to work on a promise that the operators will make concessions and arbitrate afterward. The miners would not return to work under such an arrangement."

Mr. Mitchell declared that the men are confident of winning and that there had been no desertions among the strikers.

"I am certainly very hopeful now that the strike will be ended in our favor," he added.

The big defense fund that is being collected at the national headquarters in Indianapolis, Mitchell said, is proving sufficient to relieve the distress in the region. About 25,000 miners have left the region since the strike began, leaving about 130,000, he explained, to be cared for. When asked if the troops are to be withdrawn from the region, Mr. Mitchell said:

"Not that I know of. There is no need of the troops, however, as the men are orderly. They are keeping within the law."

"Is any coal being taken out of the region?"

"A little is going out, but no new coal is being mined. Most of the coal now being shipped was mined before the strike began. No mines are being started and no members of the organization are returning to work."

OPERATIONS RESUME.

Tamaqua, Pa., Sept. 15.—This morning the Greenwood colliery, situated at the western end of the Panther Creek valley resumed operations. It is impossible to learn exactly how many men are at work as the place is very heavily guarded and the operators, Beddall Brothers, will give out no definite statement. They say, however, that they expect to wash about 300 tons of coal a day.

Today the Lehigh Valley and Navigation company claims gains in the Panther Creek valley. An official of this company said that it was expected that the daily output from the No. 4 and No. 12 collieries would now be increased from 1,400 to 1,800 tons a day. The leaders of the mine workers dispute the claims of the company. They say there are no more men at work today than there were last week.

No troops were sent out from Manila Park this morning, but a company was kept under arms to respond to call. No disturbance of any consequence was reported.

BISHOP FALLOWS WILL AID.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 15.—Right Rev. Samuel Fallows, of Chicago, who was reported to have left that city to meet President Mitchell, of the Mine Workers, in Pittsburg today, could not be found at any of the hotels and as far as could be ascertained had not arrived there at noon. Commenting on the proposed meeting, the Chronicle-Telegraph says this afternoon:

"An important conference is scheduled to be held in Pittsburg before the close of the day that may lead to a speedy termination of the coal miners' strike in the anthracite region. President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, and the Right Rev. Samuel Fallows, of Chicago, bishop of the diocese of the West and North

St. Paul's Episcopal church, have arranged to meet here today.

"A great deal of secrecy has been thrown around the proposed conference and various reports are in circulation. One is to the effect that a meeting will be held with Former Senator William Flinn and M. K. McMullin, who attended the early morning conference at Gov. W. A. Stone's residence in Harrisburg the other day."

"Bishop Fallows is well known among miners and operators and he is given credit of settling a serious dispute in Illinois several years ago. The frequent visits of President Mitchell to Chicago during the progress of the strike, it is now explained, were to hold consultations with Bishop Fallows."

"Coal operators in the Pittsburg district are greatly interested in the proposed meeting and while giving no particularly positive grounds for their opinion, say that they are confident the strike will be settled in a short time."

ELECTRIC CURRENT WAS OFF

STEAM PIPE AT POWER STATION BURST TODAY.

Many Houses Tied Up for Lack of Power—Damage Repaired in Two Hours.

For a matter of two hours early today every business establishment in Fort Wayne depending upon electric current to operate its elevators or other machinery was tied up effectually by a break at the power station of the Jenney Electric Light and Power company, on Spy Run avenue. The mishap occurred at 6:50 o'clock, within a few minutes of the time when there is a big demand for current on account of beginning business for the day. A large steam pipe, six inches in diameter, which had been installed as a temporary feed for the two new boilers, burst with a loud report. Fortunately no one was near enough to sustain injury and the machinery was quickly stopped.

The accident made it impossible to operate any considerable portion of the plant, and from all over the city came a deluge of telephonic inquiries to ascertain the reason for the failure of the electric current. Newspaper offices, where the Linotype machines are operated by electric power; the factories depending upon electricity as motive power, and elevators propelled by the current were all effectually "tied up." In some of the larger downtown buildings where girls are employed in offices on the upper floors, they declined to climb the long flights of stairways and returned home.

While patrons were suffering much inconvenience, however, the electric light people were bending every energy to make the repair as quickly as possible. Shortly before 9 o'clock the connection was re-made, but it was necessary to run the machinery for a short time to dry it thoroughly before the "load" was thrown on. This was done shortly after 9 o'clock.

JUSTICE HORACE GRAY DEAD

RETIRED JURIST EXPIRES AT LYNN, MASS.

Death Due to Paralysis—Was Appointed to Supreme Bench by President Arthur.

Lynn, Mass., Sept. 15.—Justice Horace Gray, who retired from the United States supreme bench recently, died at his residence in Nahant this morning of paralysis. He had been in poor health for some time. Since his retirement he had been staying at his summer home.

Judge Gray was born in Boston, March 24, 1828, and was graduated from Harvard college in the class of 1849 and from the law school in 1849. He was admitted to the bar in 1851. He was reporter of the supreme judicial court of Massachusetts from 1854 to 1861. He was appointed associate justice of that court in 1864 and chief justice in 1873. President Arthur commissioned him as associate justice of the supreme court of the United States Dec. 19, 1881.

Mrs. Jennie Ray Ormsby has returned from her trip abroad, and will hold her annual study opening on Monday, Oct. 6th. The fall recital under the auspices of the Southwick club will be given by Prof. S. H. Clark, of the University of Chicago, some time in October.

NEW LABOR PARTY

POLITICAL SCHEME LAUNCHED IN CHICAGO.

BALLOT WORKMAN'S WEAPON

PLAN SUGGESTED TO FORM PARTY OF PROLETARIAT.

DEMANDS RADICAL CHANGES

ASKS ENDORSEMENT OF ORGANIZED LABOR.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 15.—A movement for enlisting the hosts of workmen throughout the United States into a semi-political organization was launched in this city, says the Post. A platform said to embrace the economical and political ideas of labor leaders and covering the whole labor situation has been prepared and will be presented first for approval next week before the Chicago Federation of Labor.

The platform demands the abolition of the so-called political machine, the establishment of government primaries where votes may be cast "for the nominees as citizens and not as members of a machine," and the initiative and referendum. It favors the right of recalling representatives who are out of touch with voters. Relief from the trusts is suggested in the plan for "the passage of an amendment to the practice laws of every state and the federal government, under which litigants may bring up, in any suit in which a corporation is the defendant, the question of its right to its franchise, whether it has usurped power not given it under statute and whether it has forfeited its powers."

This method, it is urged, would be productive of more good than the institution of suits by federal district attorneys. Vigilance committees in every state and large city are favored to see that the laws are impartially administered. The improved sanitary conditions, living wages, the repeal of the laws limiting the liabilities in personal injury suits, the supplying of free text books to all children in the lower grades of public schools and the abolition of convict labor in competition with free men are demanded. Limitation on the injunction powers of judges is asked and the popular election of federal judges and senators is suggested. In all civil trials majority verdicts are desired. The plan favors the government instead of banks issuing all kinds of money and it is suggested that private individuals be driven from the banking business. Laws are demanded restricting the issue of capital stock, bond and securities to any greater extent than the actual property owned by corporations. Public ownership of public utilities is desired and state insurance and provisions for old age are approved. Child labor is decried and educational aids and trade unionism to keep up wages are approved. In closing the platform reads:

"In order to bring about a state of harmony instead of constant discord, the workmen must look for relief at the ballot box. Here where the will of the people is supreme the remedy lies at hand and must be taken advantage of. Workingmen must undertake to govern, as well as toil, and in that way they will get justice."

PRESIDENT'S G. A. R. ORDER.

Washington, Sept. 15.—President Roosevelt has issued the following executive order closing the departments in Washington on the day of the G. A. R. parade during the encampment next month:

"Executive Order:
"In order that the members of the Grand Army of the Republic employed in the public service in the city of Washington may have the opportunity of joining in the parade arranged for Wednesday, Oct. 8, 1902, and that all others may unite with the citizens of the District of Columbia in showing honor to the union soldiers and sailors to be gathered in the national capital on that occasion, it is hereby ordered that the several executive departments, the government printing office and the navy yard and station at Washington be closed on that day."
(Signed.) "Theodore Roosevelt."
"White House, Sept. 10, 1902."

MAY YONE'S CLAIM IGNORED.

London, Sept. 15.—Lord Francis Hope has finally settled with his creditors on the basis of a cash compromise of $2.50 in the pound sterling. The claims amounted to $109,100. In addition to this amount a claim was lodged by May Yone, Lord Hope's divorced wife, for $42,988.

but it was utterly repudiated by the debtor.

MGR. GUIDI TO FILL SEES.

Rome, Sept. 15.—The archbishopric of Manila and the three vacant bishoprics in the Philippines will not be filled until Mgr. Guidi, the apostolic delegate, arrives there and reports to the Vatican on the subject.

NEW PRESIDENT OF BALDWIN.

Youngstown, Ohio, Sept. 15.—The Rev. Dr. Buxton, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, has just returned from Berea, where he accepted the presidency of Baldwin university. He assumes his new duties next June.

WAS TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL.

JUDGE JOHN MORRIS SEIZED WITH PAINFUL ATTACK.

Venerable Jurist was Stricken in Court House Today—Not Thought to Be Serious.

The venerable Judge Morris was suddenly taken seriously ill in the court house this afternoon, shortly after 1 o'clock. He was found by Deputy Trustee Kramer in the corridors standing in a very much stooped position and moaning as if in great pain. The aged jurist was assisted into the trustee's office and Dr. John Schilling, who was close by, was called in, while telephone messages were sent to his sons, who speedily responded. Judge Morris was suffering from severe stomach and bowel cramps and he was evidently in extreme pain. After a few minutes he revived sufficiently to be placed in a carriage and was conveyed to his home, accompanied by his sons. It is the first time that the venerable jurist has suffered any serious indisposition in a number of years, but no serious results from the present attack are apprehended.

THE NASH BILL IS HELD UP

SENATORS DEFER ACTION ON CODE MEASURE.

No Action for Some Weeks—House Committee Is Unfriendly to the Senate Recommendations.

Columbus, O., Sept. 15.—The select committee of the lower branch of the Ohio legislature temporarily hung up the Nash municipal code bill at a meeting today. The senate some time ago adopted this bill as a basis upon which to work, but the members of the house committee who are considering the measure are not friendly to the bill and they refuse to adopt it on the ground that they would thus commit themselves to vote for the bill at the time a report is formulated. The committee took a recess with a motion to adopt the bill still pending. It is possible that an understanding will be reached at a later meeting. Present indications seem to point to at least three weeks continuous session before the public will be ready to vote upon the bill as a whole and even then it will in no wise resemble any of the bills now pending. There will be sessions of conference committees the week following so that it will be more than a month before the municipal government question in Ohio shall be settled.

BUYS A BUSINESS BUILDING

E. B. KUNKLE MAKES A $13,000 INVESTMENT.

Louis Mohr Sells West Wayne Street Business Property This Afternoon.

E. B. Kunkle today made an additional $13,000 investment in downtown business property and he became the owner of desirable real estate on West Wayne street, near Calhoun.

The purchase was the three-story stone front building owned by Louis Mohr, and now occupied by Freiburger & Michel as a grocery house. The property is 30x150 feet in size and is regarded as a valuable acquisition.

The price, as stated, was $13,000, and Mr. Kunkle quietly counted out the amount in cold cash. The deal was negotiated by the Lennart & Zorbaugh agency and is one of the largest recent transfers of downtown property.

The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McVey, of No. 3 DeGross street, had a narrow escape from asphyxiation by inhaling burnt gas fumes Sunday morning. One of the young women awakened at an early hour yesterday morning and found that she could scarcely breathe. She called to her parents, who were sleeping in another part of the house, and Dr. McGowan was sent for. The physicians worked the greater part of the day with the young women and in the afternoon pronounced them out of danger, although they are still quite sick. The accumulation of gas in the living rooms was caused by the stopping up of the chimney in the kitchen.

THE COLOMBIAN GOVERNMENT SCORES A POINT.

GENERAL CARREAZO QUILTS

LEADER OF THE REVOLUTIONARY FORCES SURRENDERS.

VICTORIES MEAN PACIFICATION OF LARGE DISTRICT.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The state department has received a cablegram from Minister Hart, at Bogota, Colombia, which says that the revolutionary general, Carreazo, who has been operating with a strong force on the great plains east of Bogota, has surrendered. This is regarded as of the utmost importance to the government authorities, who consider that it assures the pacification of the whole eastern region. The Colombian government also has announced the repulse by a government war vessel of a revolutionary attack some days ago upon the Magdalena river.

REINFORCEMENTS EN ROUTE.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Senor Concha, the Colombian minister, received a cablegram today, dated September 13, and signed by President Marroquin, Secretary of State Jaul and Secretary of War Fernandez, which stated the 5,000 government troops under the command of General Perdomo had started down the Magdalena river to reinforce the government troops on the isthmus. The cablegram also stated that 15,000 additional government troops were held in readiness to move to the isthmus and that the interior was quiet.

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

Colon, Colombia, Sept. 15.—The United States cruiser Cincinnati arrived here today from Haytian waters.

The Isthmian situation is unchanged.

There are no definite indications of the intention of General Herrera to immediately attack the isthmus.

C. H. COLTON TUMBLED DOWN CELLAR STAIRS.

Sustained Painful Injuries and Has Been Only Semi-Conscious for Several Days.

C. H. Colton, of the firm of Colton, Samberg & Co., who conduct a tea store at 122 West Main street, is lying in a semi-conscious condition in his apartments in Dodes's boarding house, as the result of a fall down the cellar stairs at his store last Thursday night.

Mr. Colton dropped asleep while writing some letters, and when he awoke he started down stairs, but missed his footing and fell to the bottom. He struck his head on the corner of the foundation and a portion of the scalp was torn off, exposing several inches of the skull. Mr. Colton has no distinct recollection of what has occurred since that time, and yet remains in a partially dazed condition. Dr. W. F. Schradef sewed up the cut. The physicians in charge have not yet definitely determined whether a fracture of the skull exists or not.

WILL ENJOIN PUGILISTS.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 15.—Attorney General Pratt is today preparing a petition for injunction to be filed in Jefferson circuit court tomorrow, restraining the Southern Athletic club, of Louisville, from permitting the Corbett-McGovern fight in that city or elsewhere in Kentucky. A half-dozen leading lawyers in Louisville will be associated with the attorney for the commonwealth. The case will be heard at Louisville Wednesday.

ARRANGE MILITARY ESCORT

FOR PRESIDENT'S VISIT IN FORT WAYNE.

Reception Committee at Work Today—Cortelyou Approves Plans as Outlined.

It is designed to have the various military societies of the city in line as a military escort to President Roosevelt when he visits Fort Wayne September 23, to participate in the exercises in connection with the dedication of the court house.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock Chairman Burghoff's reception committee went into session in the county commissioners' room to agree upon final details for the reception of President Roosevelt. At this meeting a program will be prepared in detail covering the work of the committee, and invitations will be extended to the military companies in the city to turn out as an escort to the distinguished guest.

APPROVES THE PLANS.

Secretary Cortelyou has approved the plans for the president's visit as outlined to him by Chairman S. M. Foster, of the general executive committee. A telegram from the secretary to Mr. Foster announces also that the hour for the president's arrival has been fixed at 6:45 p. m., fifteen minutes later than previously announced. The telegram follows: "White House, Washington, Sept. 12, 1902.—Samuel M. Foster, chairman, executive committee, Fort Wayne, Ind.: Referring to your letter and telegram of 2d inst., program submitted is satisfactory. Your understanding as to place of arrival and departure is correct. Personnel of party will be sent you shortly; also detailed instructions, which should have most careful attention. Final itinerary contemplates reaching Fort Wayne at 6:45 p. m. and leaving at 7:45 p. m."
"Geo. B. Cortelyou, Secretary."

HE WAS ANNOYED

PRESIDENT DISPLEASED WITH MEMORIAL ADDRESS.

RECTOR SEES DANGER AHEAD

HE SCORED MONEY POWER AND PRAISED ROOSEVELT.

MCKINLEY'S MEMORY IS UNI-VERSALLY HONORED.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 15.—President Roosevelt sat in a church yesterday and heard a minister refer to him as having been providentially promoted to the presidency of the United States. He was called a David who would save the nation from the power of money. His attitude toward the trust's unexpected found a champion to do battle against hostile criticism. But the president was not pleased with the sermon. He did not approve of the utterances.

Rev. Henry Homer Washburn, rector of Christ Episcopal church, who had been especially invited by Mr. Roosevelt to preach a McKinley memorial sermon, is the clergyman who warned not only the president but his congregation that the American union was approaching another crisis. The money power was threatening the very life of the republic. Mr. Roosevelt, he went on, did not become president by chance. A mighty foe to keep this money power in check was necessary. Mr. Roosevelt, as he had already shown by his attacks on the trusts, was divinely appointed to lead the fight for liberty.

President Roosevelt's face became red as the preacher extolled his virtues. He shifted uneasily in his seat and was plainly restive and disturbed by the utterances. When the sermon was at an end the president turned to his wife and whispered, "He should not have done that."

PRESIDENT ANNOYED.

Mr. Washburn's discourse was an endorsement of the president's efforts to place great corporations under government control. But so complete was it with broad flattery of the nation's chief executive, who sat before him; so direct were his allusions to the personality of the president, that the latter was thunderstruck and could not conceal his vexation.

"Who could fill his place?" exclaimed Mr. Washburn in speaking of President McKinley. "Fortunately a David was vice president. Many said he was too young to be president, that youth is apt to be impulsive. How the love of him is filling the hearts of the people. What one serious mistake has he made?"

President Roosevelt fairly writhed and his face flushed. His ears turned purple as the overzealous rector praised his honesty, his bravery, his positive convictions, resolute purpose, frankness, impartiality, independence and innumerable other qualities.

Dr. Washburn took for his text the fourth and fifth verses of the fourth chapter of Galatians. After eulogizing the martyred president he said:

"The country had not been so prosperous as on that day when the report of a pistol startled the nation and numbered Mr. McKinley with our martyred presidents. Who can read history and believe that the course of events happened by chance? It was by no accident that Judas betrayed the great Nazarene to be crucified. McKinley has had a great successor."

"In only one thing do some of President Roosevelt's friends fear he is making a mistake—that is regarding the trusts. He had better let them have a free hand, they say, and work out their ends."

SEEKS GOOD OF ALL.

"But evidently he has studied trust methods, and is convinced that the good of all demands that trusts be brought under the control of the national government. Is not this a conservative proposition? How can one have any knowledge of human nature and not see the possibility of danger coming by and through the unguarded use of great wealth concentrated in the hands of a few?"

"You hear of 'good trusts' and 'bad trusts.' What does this mean if not that the unscrupulous men already at the head of certain trusts are planning methods to cheat, rob and oppress? Evidently the president sees and is convinced of the possibility of danger. If ever circumstances indicated that one was placed providentially in the executive chair of the nation, then the circumstances that attended the promotion of Mr. Roosevelt so indicate. If words mean anything, his motives contemplate the good of all. From past experience with him we know that he will labor toward that end, come what may."

CAUSES GREAT SURPRISE.

that he had requested Mr. Washburn to hold memorial services, but that he had no knowledge of what the sermon contained, nor had he any intimation that the rector would refer to the trusts or himself. Mr. Washburn also stated that he had prepared the sermon without consulting any members of the president's family.

THE DAY IN CANTON.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 15.—Judge William R. Day delivered the chief McKinley memorial day address here yesterday in the First M. E. church, of which the late president was a member and at which the funeral was held September 19, 1901. The only decorations were flowers and a portrait of the late president, around which were the folds of the stars and stripes, emblematic of the patriotic spirit of McKinley.

In addition to the tribute paid by Judge Day, who was secretary of state in McKinley's cabinet and a close friend and adviser to the martyred president, there was a general observance of the day in Canton, which claimed him as its own. From almost every pulpit there was reference in prayer or an address to him and his work. His favorite hymns were used.

Although deeply conscious of the fact that it was just one year ago that her husband died, Mrs. McKinley did not vary the program followed by her for several months. All days to her have been memorial days. Her usual trip to Westlawn cemetery was taken in the forenoon, and she laid love's offering of flowers on the casket that contains the remains of the nation's martyred chief. Mrs. Garret A. Hobart, who is her guest, went with her into the McKinley tomb and also laid a bouquet of flowers on the coffin. Their subsequent drive took them to the McKinley family burial lot, where the daily bouquets were laid by Mrs. McKinley's direction. The afternoon and evening were spent at the McKinley home. During the day there were many visitors at the McKinley vault.

AT SCENE OF TRAGEDY.

Buffalo, Sept. 15.—The anniversary of the death of William McKinley was universally observed in this city yesterday. The pastors in all the churches paid tribute to the memory of the martyred president and his favorite hymns, "Nearer My God, to Thee," and "Lead, Kindly Light," were sung by the worshippers in small chapels and missions and gloriously intoned on the great organs in the larger churches, seemingly with special significance and fervor. In the afternoon a public meeting was held in the city convention hall. The auditorium was crowded and hundreds were turned away. Despite the presence of the immense throng, a reverent quiet prevailed throughout the service. The interior of the hall was decorated with the national colors. A large oil painting of the dead president, festooned in flags, faced the audience. Over the portrait was a banner inscribed with the words uttered by the president on his death bed, "It is God's way." Mayor Erastus C. Knight presided.

Dispatches received by The Sentinel from all parts of the country bear mute but eloquent evidence of the regard with which the late President McKinley is still held in the hearts of his countrymen, and the sincerity and spontaneity of the tribute rendered to his memory on the first anniversary of his death. No town was too small, no city was too big and busy, no cross roads was too isolated to collect its group or crowd of men and women of almost every nationality, race and religion, at the memorial services held in thousands of churches and school houses. Everywhere the theme was the same, the strength and purity of the dead president's character, his patriotism and the tenderness of his domestic life.

TAKE PART IN MANEUVERS.

Lieut. Frank E. Davis, of this city, now with the Eighth cavalry, stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, has written a friend in the city that he will leave this week with his troops for Fort Riley, Kan., to participate in the army maneuvers there. It is a five hundred mile trip, and will be made on horseback. Lieutenant I. W. Leonard, of the Twenty-second infantry, another Fort Wayne soldier, is on his way from Fort Crook, Neb., to Fort Riley for the same purpose.

HAS BIG RIVER CONTRACT.

John Sprinkle, jr., of Abolte township, has returned from Michigan, where he has a large contract for widening and deepening Cass river, near its mouth, upon which he has been engaged for about eighteen months. On Friday he secured another thirteen-mile contract for similar work upon a branch of the same river. The contract, Mr. Sprinkle says, has been a profitable one.

DEAD PRESIDENT HONORED

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR MAR-TYRED MCKINLEY.

Rev. J. B. Fleming Makes a Strong Address—Services at Plymouth Church.

Memorial services in honor of President McKinley were held last evening in Westminster Presbyterian church and a beautiful program was carried out. Special numbers were sung by Westminster quartet, the service closing with the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee," the late president's favorite hymn.

Rev. Fleming paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the dead statesman, setting forth his life as a perfect example for young men to follow. In the course of his address Rev. Fleming denounced anarchy and spoke scathingly of the laxity in the enforcement of laws passed for the restraint of the cult. "In my opinion," said Rev. Fleming, "the caricaturing of men in high office by the newspapers does much to foster anarchistic ideas. I speak of the cartoons that exaggerate conditions and inflame the minds of the more impressionable, begetting a lack of respect for these in office that may lead to serious consequences. I believe laws should be passed to entirely prohibit this kind of cartoon or at least to keep them within bounds."

AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

Plymouth Congregational church was crowded to the doors yesterday at the memorial services held in honor of the late President McKinley. Rev. Bailey's text was "This is the Fruit of It." He reviewed the life of the late president and the lessons in manliness, honesty and piety it contained and told graphically the story of the president's last few days of life and his death. At the conclusion of the sermon communion was celebrated, and new members were received into the church.

MISSION BOARD'S REPORT.

Boston, Sept. 15.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions has balanced its books for its fiscal year ended Aug. 31st, and today made public the following financial statement:

The expenditures for twelve months to Aug. 31, 1902, were $741,303, and the regular receipts for the year were $742,764, leaving a balance on hand Sept. 1st, of $1,461. The gains of the year have been from legacies and women's boards.

The debt of a year ago, amounting to $102,341, has been entirely cancelled through the redemption of pledges, given at the Hartford meeting last October.

The ninety-third annual meeting of the board will be held in Oberlin, Ohio, Oct. 14 to 17. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn.

the United States has been fortunate as compared with other countries, where the devastation by volcano, earthquake, wind and water has been great.

Bee stings are recommended as a cure for the rheumatism. Whether the cure will be permanent may not be demonstrated; but it is certain that a sufficient dose will distract the attention of the sufferer from his rheumatic pains for the time being.

In eight months of the present year the losses from fires in the United States have been $8,000,000 less than in 1901 and $22,000,000 less than in 1900. If the difference indicates a settled tendency the people of this country may well congratulate themselves.

David Turpie, formerly United States senator from Indiana, is passing his declining years in his comfortable Indianapolis home. Mr. Turpie declines to be interviewed, saying he has absolutely retired from public life. "It seems to me," he said recently, "that newspapers give too much space to trivial matters. Twenty-five years ago the reporters only sought interviews on subjects of moment. I don't think they are so careful nowadays."

Sir Thomas Lipton is providing for the construction of another cup challenger. For the third time he will "cross the pond" to try his luck at "lifting the cup." The last time he was here a feeling of uneasiness prevailed lest the splendid yacht which he brought, the product of months of careful British designing, would leave the American boat behind. But all misgivings were groundless, since the Columbia beat her rival in Shamrock weather. Still, every time Lipton builds a boat he improves upon the one before. Thus it behooves our yachtsmen to be "up and doing," keeping the fact well in mind that Sir Thomas is serious in his desire for victory and that he has the necessary yellow metal to warrant his keeping "everlastingly at it." He is an enterprising merchant, as all may know, but perhaps somebody has not heard the story that when one of his vessels laden with Lipton's teas was foundering the crew was set at work immediately in painting advertisements for Lipton's merchandise on the wreckage. The story has a saline flavor, but it illustrates the prevailing ideas of the famous merchant's character.

SAVED HOME BUT LOST LIFE

NORTH MANCHESTER GIRL IS BURNED TO DEATH.

Miss Della Wright, Cleaning Ribbons With Gasoline, Meets Frightful Fate.

North Manchester, Ind., Sept. 15.—Miss Della Wright, 20 years of age, daughter of Rev. John Wright, a German Baptist minister residing near this place, was burned to death Friday night.

Her parents were absent from home and the young woman was engaged in cleaning ribbons with gasoline and drying them around the stove, when they caught fire and instantly the fluid on her hands was all ablaze. The flames communicated to her clothing and the frightened girl rushed out doors in the rain and rolled in the wet grass. She succeeded in extinguishing the blaze, but not until she was burned almost to a crisp. Although suffering terrible agony and with the nails dropping from her fingers, she realized that the house was on fire and with no one there to help, the young woman heroically gathered a bucket and pumped several pails of water which she dashed upon the fire in the house and fell exhausted upon the floor just as she had succeeded in putting out the fire. By this time neighbors who had heard her screams rushed in and summoned a physician and everything possible was done for her relief but she passed away about midnight after hours of terrible suffering. She was one of the most popular and highly respected young women in this community.

WILL TALK OF MISSIONS.

Rev. Ernest Saure, who spent six years in China as a missionary, will deliver an address this evening at Grace Reformed church under the auspices of the Women's Missionary society, on "Missions in China." Rev. Saure was sent to China by the inland mission board, an undenominational association, and he is home on a year's leave of absence. The meeting is open to the public.

SPEAKING CAMPAIGN OPENS

ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING IN ADAMS TOWNSHIP.

Congressman Robinson and Lew V. Ulrey Deliver Addresses—Township Ticket Named.

Center school house in Adams township was the scene of the first political gathering of the campaign Saturday evening and much enthusiasm prevailed. The convention was largely attended, many prominent democrats from all over the county being present, including the candidates on the county ticket. Committeeman Michael Sheridan called the meeting to order and Christian Schlaudroff was elected chairman, J. Herman Buxter being chosen secretary. Lew V. Ulrey, candidate for state senator, made an address, which was well received, and nominations were made as follows:

Advisory Board—Herman Schnelker, Henry Linker, John Brown. Justices of the Peace—James A. Crippen, of New Haven, and James F. Bird, of Fort Wayne. Constable—Barney Schomfeldt, New Haven. Supervisors—B. W. Stoner, William Engelbrecht, Fred Koch, William Reed.

The decision to hold the next township convention in New Haven was the concluding business of the convention, and Congressman Robinson was called upon for an address. He presented an able discussion of the political issues of the day, confining his remarks chiefly to the tariff and the trusts, and his telling points were cheered to the echo.

The committeemen are making active preparations for the campaign and assignment of speakers is now being made. Mr. Robinson and Mr. Ulrey will speak Wednesday evening at the school house near the county infirmary and on Thursday evening Mr. Robinson is to speak at Jefferson Center. The Pleasant township convention will be held at Center school house Saturday evening, Sept. 27.

STRONG TEAM FORMED.

At a meeting of foot ball players, held in the assembly room of the court house Saturday evening, a strong team was formed, which will be backed by the management of Wolf Bros.' clothing house. Harry B. Corazzi, of the Wolf store, is financial manager of the team, and Fred Hart is schedule manager. Several members of the team were on the library hall eleven last year, and three will be several new players, among them Henderson and Miller, formerly of Auburn, the former back of the line and the latter at quarter, and also Johnson and Davis, who played on last year's Purdue team. Other players are, Fred Schultz, Heckman, McCarthy and Schultz who played center for Liberty hall last season. Herman Brown will be captain of the team. Half Back Evans, of last year's Liberty hall team, will not play this year. The following games have been secured by Manager Hart: October 4, Decatur; October 11, Huntington; October 18, Wolf team at Huntington; October 25, Van Wert; November 1, Wabash; November 8, Wolf team at Van Wert; November 15, Kendallville; Nov. 22, Wolf team at Decatur; Thanksgiving day, open.

NAMES FORT WAYNE SOLDIERS

In the general order just issued by Charles L. Jewett, of New Albany, commander of the Spanish American War Veterans' association, a number of Fort Wayne soldiers have been honored. Capt. Newton W. Gilbert is named as a member of the council of administration, Lieutenant John C. Jackson is named a delegate to the national encampment at Indianapolis September 22, 23 and 24, and Capt. W. F. Ranke and Capt. Otto C. Meyers are appointed aids on the staff of the department commander.

NO SUBSTITUTE OFFERED.

Say what you will about druggists offering something "just as good" because it pays a better profit, the fact still stands that ninety-nine out of a hundred druggists recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when the best remedy for diarrhoea is asked for, and do so because they know it is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is for sale by all druggists. 8-14-2m

CZAR WILL IGNORE VATICAN.

Rome, Sept. 15.—The announcement that the czar when he returns the visit of King Victor Emmanuel will not call on the pope, has seriously disturbed the vatican. It is said that the Russian minister to the holy see will purposely be absent from Rome during the sojourn of the czar here, so as to render it easier to ignore the vatican. Papal diplomacy is doing its utmost to prevent such an awkward incident, which is attributed to the desire of the czar to show his displeasure at the pope's action in withdrawing the papal nuncio from The Hague because he was not invited to take part in the peace congress.

ITS GROWTH ABROAD.

Boston, Sept. 15.—Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, arrived this morning on the steamship Marion, from Liverpool. He looked exceptionally well after his six months' tour through Europe, and expressed himself as highly gratified with the progress the society is making abroad.

During his trip Dr. Clark visited twenty different countries, traveling nearly 33,000 miles. He attended 200 meetings, and his addresses have been translated into 19 different tongues. He said that in Great Britain there are 10,000 Christian Endeavor societies, having a membership of fully 500,000. London leads the world in the number of members, having 700 societies. Philadelphia and Chicago, he said, were formerly in the lead in this respect, but the English metropolis has now surpassed them.

The society is progressing in Italy, Sweden, Spain and Bulgaria, and Germany, Sweden and France have joined the Christian Endeavor union, working in conjunction with the union in this country.

COLOR YOUTH FOR HARVARD

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 15.—Willis O. Tyler, the young colored man of Monroe county, who won the state oratorical contest in 1901 and took fourth place in a field with ten contestants in the interstate oratorical in Iowa, will enter Harvard law school. He graduated at the state university this year in the department of history and political science. Tyler has made his way through college and is resolved to earn enough at Harvard to pay his expenses, otherwise he cannot attend. He has in mind table waiting. At the state university he shined shoes, barbered and ran errands.

DEDICATE ORGAN OCTOBER 3.

An organ recital will be given at the Third Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, Oct. 2d, on the occasion of dedicating the new instrument, which was installed by the Kilgan Organ company, of St. Louis, last week. Harrison Wilde, of Chicago, an organist instructor of national repute, will give the recital and he will be assisted by the Haydn, Linden and Apollo quartets. The new organ will be used for the first time next Sunday.

OUT OF FRENCH POLITICS.

Rome, Sept. 15.—Replying to the request of the French ambassador to the vatican, who wished to secure for a French newspaper man an interview with the pope, the papal secretary of state, Cardinal Rampolla, in explaining the impossibility of so doing, said:

"The pope resolved months ago not to utter a word himself and ordered us not to utter a word which might be interpreted either for or against French policy or serve the interests of party politics."

GOBBLES ANOTHER LINE.

New York, Sept. 15.—It is stated that J. R. Ellerman has disposed of the Antwerp-Montreal line of steamers to the Morgan shipping syndicate, cables the London correspondent of the Tribune. When the Leyland line was sold to the American combination, Mr. Ellerman retained the Antwerp-Montreal service, together with the Mediterranean and Lisbon and Oporto traders.

FOURTEEN ARE DROWNED.

Colombo, Ceylon, Sept. 15.—It is now learned that the British steamer Nithsdale, news of the grounding of which on a reef south of Cardiva island, in the Indian ocean, September 8, was received here Friday last, has foundered. Part of her crew has been brought to this port. The captain and thirteen men are believed to have been drowned.

"TIPPS" WILL GIVE A DANCE.

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the Tippecanoe club to arrange for a dance met yesterday and decided to give the dance on Friday evening, Oct. 3d, at the Wayne club. The committee consists of Harry Stophar, Fred Grummon, Fay Randall and Edgar B. Hartman.

SUCCEEDS MARTINELLI.

Rome, Sept. 15.—The vatican has definitely decided to send the Most Rev. Diomedes Falconio to Washington as papal delegate in the United States. Monsignor Falconio is now apostolic delegate for the Dominion of Canada.

CLERK PROMOTED

PENNSYLVANIA AND ADAMS EXPRESS MEN IN LUCK.

REIBER IS HOGAN'S CLERK

JAMES B. STEMEN GOES TO AGENT BECKER'S OFFICE.

COMPLETES A TRIP WHICH COM-MENCED IN JULY.

Louis C. Steger, for two or three years clerk in Foreman H. T. Hogan's office at the Pittsburgh machine shop, resigned Saturday night and this morning he took a position in the main office building at the Fort Wayne Electric works. The change is made because of the inducements in the way of increase for promotion and salary that the new position offers. Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock, of the Pennsylvania, has filled the vacancy in Mr. Hogan's department by the promotion of J. Reiber, a clerk in the main shop clerk's office. The position vacated by Mr. Reiber has not yet been filled, but it will be in a day or two and civil service rules will probably be adopted. Messrs. Steger and Reiber are good fellows and their advancement is matter for general approval by all who know them.

BIG SHIPMENT OF OIL PUMPS.

Saturday some of the finest shipments of oil pumps that have taken place from this city for several months occurred from the Bowser Oil Tank works. One consignment was to Newark, N. J., and it consisted of twenty-four nickel special pumps and sixteen first floor "gallon" pumps. These special pumps are among the finest ever built at the Bowser works. In fact they have no superiors and but very few equals anywhere. They are designed for use in drug stores where they are exposed to view and are really an ornament as well as a most useful receptacle and means of drawing oil for the retail trade. The other pumps were of the usual style for service in groceries and oil houses. They were consigned to parties in Schenectady, N. Y., and St. Louis. This is not the largest single day output from the Bowser works, but owing to the character of the pumps, it probably represents the greatest amount of cash involved in one day's business in the shipping department of that establishment.

WILL MEET HERE NEXT TIME.

Dr. C. B. Stemen, who returned from Pittsburgh Saturday, where he had been attending a meeting of the Association of Surgeons of the Pennsylvania railroads, announces that the next meeting of the association will be held in Fort Wayne. The association has several hundred members and the attendance at the meetings is usually upwards of fifty. Last Friday there were seventy-five in attendance. The next meeting of the association will be 12, 1903. The officers are: President, Dr. L. S. McCurdy, of Pittsburgh; vice president, Dr. G. W. Thompson, of Winamac, Ohio; secretary and treasurer, Dr. R. J. Morgan, of Van Wert, Ohio. At the meeting last Friday, Dr. Stemen read a paper on "Anesthetics."

UTILIZING THE EXPRESS.

One of the best patrons of the express companies who do business in Fort Wayne is the Fort Wayne Electric company. Yesterday this company sent to Boston, by Adams express, a dynamo which weighed 4,000 pounds and received through the same agency 5,000 pounds of sheet steel from Tacoma, Pa. It is nothing out of the ordinary for the Electric people to send dynamo by express, but the receipt of rough stock like the Tacoma product is an uncommon occurrence. The works are short of some kinds of stock and sheet steel was one of them.

CHANGE AT ADAMS OFFICE.

The resignation of Claude B. Notestine as office clerk of the Adams Express company has resulted in a couple of promotions. Agent G. E. Becker has called James B. Stemen, formerly clerk at the depot office of the company, to the place vacated by Notestine. George Thieme has been assigned to the position at the depot, which Stemen vacated. Ross Scott and Otto Newell, of this city, have been employed by the company and are now engaged in reeling oysters between Crestline and Chicago.

WILL HAVE SPECIAL CAR.

General Lawton post, G. A. R., will go to Washington in grand style on the occasion of the Grand Army encampment. Arrangements were effected Saturday night, whereby the post will have a special car on Pennsylvania train No. 8 and will leave this city on the evening of October 3. The company has made a rate of $12.70 for the old soldiers.

THE ACCIDENTS.

Two freight trains climbed the rails

at the crossing of the Pennsylvania and the Wabash companies, and the cars belonging to the Wabash company were thrown to put the cars in the yards on the rails.

W. J. Kelley, a fireman on the Nickel Plate, is in a Chicago hospital suffering from injuries received while out on the road Friday night, while Engineer Frank Telley. While the train, which was west bound, was a siding and while Kelley was out on the pilot covering up the head light, he was struck by some projecting piece on the passing train and knocked down. He was taken to Stony Island and thence to Chicago. While painful, his injuries will not be permanent. Mr. Kelley has been employed on the road only a short time. John Brennenkamp, also a Nickel Plate fireman, is off duty with a sprained wrist, the result of a fall John McNulty, of the Western Gas Construction works, who has been laying off for a few days with a lame wrist, was surprised to find that the joint was dislocated and that he will probably be off duty for some time on account of the accident. Dr. George Thaine attended him.

Engineer H. A. Durnell, of the Pennsylvania, had his head injured Saturday while at work in the cab. He was getting ready to go out on his trip when the accident happened. Mr. Durnell had only reported for duty that morning, having been off as the result of injuries received in the Wallen wreck.

O. H. Compton, a farmer residing near Bourbon, Ind., was struck and killed by a Pennsylvania freight train yesterday. He was walking on the tracks and stepped from one to the other just as the train came up at his rear.

E. F. Reese, a truckman in the Pittsburgh freight house, had one of his feet painfully bruised yesterday by a heavy crate falling upon it.

Louis Gage, of the Pittsburgh store room, is off duty nursing two very sore fingers, the result of an accident Saturday. E. Kampman, the boiler-maker's helper who had an eye injured last week at the Wabash shops, has gone to the company's hospital at Springfield to receive treatment from the company's oculist.

FRANK SARVER RETURNS.

The "educational tour" of the ten gentlemen appointed by the Pennsylvania motive power officials to travel over all the Pennsylvania lines and visit and consult with the various foremen and heads of the boiler plants, with a view of settling a problem relating to flues, came to a close last Saturday, when B. F. Sarver, foreman of the boiler shops in this city, arrived home. The party started out July 22, and during their journey they visited every important shop of the Pennsylvania and many of those of other lines. They were in Buffalo, DePew, Washington, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Baltimore, Wilmington, Newark, Jersey City, New York, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, Richmond, Terre Haute and Chicago, where Pennsylvania shops are located. They also visited the shops of all the leading railways in Chicago and Milwaukee and Grand Rapids. Mr. Sarver says the committee was courteously received everywhere and was provided with special cars occasionally in making trips. Their report, which is now in the hands of the stenographer who accompanied the gentlemen of the journey, will be voluminous and when it is in shape, the committee will meet again and present it to the officials, which will close their duties in this connection.

T. J. RODABAUGH RETURNS.

T. J. Rodabaugh, foreman of the paint department of the western division of the Pennsylvania, came home yesterday morning, from Boston, Mass., where he attended the thirty-third annual convention of the National Car and Locomotive Painters' association. The meeting was one of the best in point of attendance and character of proceedings the association ever held, there being at the meetings 114 regular delegates besides the motive power officials of some of the Boston roads, notably the Boston and Maine. Mr. Rodabaugh was placed upon two important committees, one being the next advisory committee whose duties will be to select and assign subjects for discussion at the next meeting, which will be held in Chicago next September. A pretty souvenir of the Boston meeting is a new design of corkscrew, encased in a nickel plated tube, with closed ends and about the size of an ordinary pocket knife.

ERECTING STRUCTURAL PIECES.

Contractor Sprout commenced the erection of the iron beams and roof trusses of the Pennsylvania shops this morning and in a short time the brick masons will commence putting in the walls between the iron pillars. Work upon the building so far has been of a character hardly noticeable to the passer-by, but hereafter each day will bring a visible advance in the erection of the structure, particularly on that part of it which fronts on

CHANGE IN OPERATIONS.

The Nickel Plate has made some changes in the ranks of its operators. Operator Schmitz has gone to Latby; E. B. Champion is chief day operator at the yard office and Operator Norton is working there at nights. Operator F. H. Logue, of the main office, is taking his vacation and Operator James M. Dale is filling his place. Operator R. K. Currie is on the night force at the main office.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pittsburg Fireman C. Rarick is sick and off duty.
Brakeman E. Morrison, who was sick a few days, reported for work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Karl Miller and Jacob Eech, of the Pittsburgh shops, are looking after some private business today.

E. H. Scheifer this morning took a position as brakeman on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road.

E. C. Turner, special machinist of the Pittsburgh, is in Crestline on business for the company today.

Homer Roebuck is now employed in the Pittsburgh blacksmith shop. He formerly worked in the company's freight house.

W. H. Dawkins, assistant lumber yards foreman of the Pittsburgh, has gone to the country for a short visit with relatives.

Fred Grime, a car builder at the East car shops, has as his guest Theodore Parney, a well-to-do farmer of Fulton county, Ohio.

A. Gerard, L. P. Klien and M. K. Griffith, of the Pittsburgh blacksmith shop, are on duty again after an absence on account of sickness.

J. H. Stuck and S. O. Cromley are new men at the Electric works, the former in the transformer and the latter in the laboratory department.

H. L. Walton, who quit his position in the Pittsburgh round house last Saturday, has gone to Lima, where he expects to find work and reside in the future.

It is settled that Western roads will make reduced rates to all points visited by President Roosevelt from stations within a radius of seventy-five miles.

W. W. Todd, chief car inspector of the Pennsylvania, returned this morning from a business trip to Pittsburgh, which kept him there three or four days.

The Lake Shore will build a large freight house at West Cleveland and improve its terminal facilities at that point at a cost of several thousand dollars.

The Lake Shore and the Nickel Plate roads expect to handle 7,000 car loads of grapes this season. The traffic is now on, but it has not yet reached its height.

Clerk H. A. Philley, of Road Foreman C. R. Colmey's office, resumed those duties at noon today, after a vacation, most of which was spent quietly at his home.

General Superintendent H. L. Magee, of the Wabash, in his special car, will be on the Continental limited this afternoon. It is not known whether he will stop here or not.

Shop Clerk George Swearingen, of the Toledo branch of the Pennsylvania system, was in the city yesterday and today, visiting his parents and looking after some railway matters.

The statement is made that the Trunk Line association has practically agreed to issue an interchangeable mileage book that shall be good on any road in the association.

Mrs. Robert Anderson, of Warsaw, is a guest at the home of Watchman W. C. Hamman, of the Pittsburgh and Broadway crossing. Mrs. Hamman is the daughter of Mrs. Anderson.

Chief Clerk J. H. Evans and Carpenter Foreman Harry Evans, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, have resumed their respective duties, after a week's vacation. The latter was in Marshall, Wis.

Electrician A. C. Davis and Machinist Thomas Cook are out on the road in the interest of the Pennsylvania company, the former being in St. Louis and the latter in Cleveland.

Robert Casterline, an apprentice who had two fingers on his right hand badly cut and bruised last Friday, at the Wabash shops, will go to the company's hospital at Peru tonight.

Master Car Builder J. A. Graham resumed his office duties at the Pittsburgh shops this morning. His stenographer, Ed Pfeiffer, who was spending a vacation in Ohio, also reported for work this morning.

The projectors of the Cincinnati, Richmond & Muncie are confident that trains will be running into Hammond, Ind., by January 1. At that point they connect with the Indiana Western over which they can reach Chicago.

Twenty men who had been working in the pines in Michigan during the summer, passed through the city last night, en route for Pennsylvania. They are anthracite coal miners and went north at the beginning of the strike to work.

Captain H. S. Harrod, who came here yesterday to meet his wife, left with her last evening for their home in Buffalo. Mrs. Harrod came here two or three weeks ago to see her father, the late George Scott, sr., and remained here until yesterday.

E. E. Clark, grand chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors, and W. J. Maxwell, grand secretary, were in Pittsburgh last week in conference with the local committee in anticipation of holding the convention of the order in that city next year.

Bellevue Gazette: "The Nickel Plate freight situation continues to improve to such an extent that the Blacksmith Henry Buckley, of the Wabash shops, is sick and off duty. Nickel Plate Brakeman J. F. Lause is sick and off duty. Brakeman F. H. Wolf is also on the sick list.

Fred Willson, of Grand Forks, N. D., is the guest of his parents and brothers in this city. Fred is now in the newspaper business.

Vincent W. Dawson, a clerk in Supt J. B. McKim's office, resumed those duties this morning. He was away on a vacation trip.

Engine 334, which received general repairs in the Wabash shops in this city, was turned over to the Detroit division this morning.

Thomas Kinney, a pipe fitter, resigned his position in the Wabash shops this morning, having worked there less than three weeks.

William Becker, foreman of timers and slate rosters of the Chicago Terminal division of the Pennsylvania, was the guest of Fort Wayne friends and relatives yesterday.

Boller Foreman B. F. Sarver, of the Pittsburgh, expects his mother and his sister, Mrs. John Venning, of Pittsburgh on Pennsylvania train No. 9 tomorrow evening. Mrs. Sarver will probably spend the winter here with her son.

Local Freight Conductor D. Denbro, of the Nickel Plate, is taking a lay off and Conductor VanMeter has charge of the train in the meantime. Conductor Ed Hinkel laid off yesterday for the purpose of fishing in the Kankakee river.

Pierce Landers has resigned as engineer of maintenance of way of the Wisconsin Central, and is succeeded by J. J. Drummond, son of the late Judge Drummond. Mr. Landers goes to Indianapolis as engineer of maintenance of way of the Belt and Union tracks.

A part of a monster fly wheel, built for a rolling mills company at McKeesport, left the Bass works this morning. Two large steel sheets for the American Clay Working Machinery company, of Willoughby, Ohio, were loaded at the Bass works for shipment this morning.

Machinist Thomas Blythe returned home Saturday evening, and this morning resumed work of the bench in the Bass shops, after an absence of ten weeks. He was setting up and putting in operation a big steam plant at Monessen, Pa., the machinery for which was built at the Bass shops.

F. A. Hitchcock, of Findlay, Ohio, who with his wife has been visiting at the home of Chief Freight Clerk C. M. Jones, of the Pittsburgh, went to Chicago this morning for a short visit before returning to his home. Mr. Hitchcock was formerly employed in a clerical way at the Pittsburgh freight office.

Conductor Samuel Grable, who spent the summer at Rome City, where he has a cottage, resumed his old place in the train service of the Nickel Plate today. Business on the road is picking up somewhat and the men who took a lay off during the dull mid-summer months are being rapidly called in.

It is announced that the long-talked of road from Sault Ste Marie to Ignace is to be built, and that it is backed by the Grand Rapids & Indiana, a Pennsylvania line. It is stated that trains will be in operation over it within twelve months. It is further stated that the Algoma Central will work in connection with the new line.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will White, of 542 Wallace street—a daughter. The father is an air brake inspector at the east yards of the Pittsburgh. Of course he is jubilant over the advent of the little one, but his feelings in this way do not exceed those of Ed and George White, who are uncles for the first time and who are as proud of the little girl as are his parents.

Blacksmith Fred Lenx, of the Pittsburgh shops, had a painful and large growth removed from the sole of his right foot last Saturday. Dr. Schick being the operating surgeon. Mr. Lenx will be off duty several weeks on account of the wounded foot, but it is believed that the member will completely heal and that he will have no more trouble from that source.

The big punch mentioned in these columns Saturday, was sat up in the Wabash boiler shops yesterday and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. It was given a trial as far as possible. All the dies are not in shape for work yet, but enough have been completed to demonstrate the capabilities of the punch end of the machine. The shears were immediately placed in operation and work perfectly.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The crutch is a poor substitute for legs, and affords a very inconvenient and tiresome mode of locomotion—there is no more pathetic sight than a person slowly and painfully moving along the street supported by these artificial limbs.

When Rheumatism settles in the bones and muscles of the legs, it is safe to predict that the victim will eventually become helpless and crutch-bound. The corrosive, irritating matter that is deposited in the joints and muscles causes the most intense pain, the knees and ankles swell, and when the natural oils and fluids that lubricate these parts are completely destroyed the joints become locked and the muscles drawn and stiff, and crutches a necessity.

The acid poisons that produce rheumatic pains form in the blood, and are distributed through the system, and lodged in the arms, shoulders, hands, back and feet, or other parts of the body—resulting often in total disability. A permanent cure of Rheumatism can be effected only by a complete cleansing of the blood, and no other remedy so surely accomplishes this as S. S. S. It neutralizes the acid effects, purifies and invigorates the stagnant blood, and the gritty particles are washed out or dislodged by the new rich blood, and relief comes to the pain-racked sufferer. S. S. S. leaves no morbid, irritating matter in the blood to reinvade and produce another attack, but expels every atom of it from the system. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, and does not impair the digestion or general health like alkali or potash remedies. Write for our special free book on Rheumatism, and if any medical advice or other information is wanted, our physicians will gladly furnish it without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

her once very hard and two games were postponed. St. Louis is now out of the fighting and the best that Chicago, last year's champions, can do is to stick in fourth place, trailing the first division. In the American League, the Indians and Cincinnati are with Louisville and Indianapolis in the lead. Indianapolis is struggling for the lead. Indianapolis is by about an hour at this writing, but is panning to keep from being run over by Louisville, whom it passed only a day or two ago. The race between the two has been interesting for a month. St. Paul will land in third place and Toledo will land about a mile below the bottom. With a record of having lost more games in a 140-game schedule than any professional club ever organized, Toledo wanted to get into fast company, and it got there.

The games yesterday were few in the National League, Pittsburgh winning a 13-9 game from St. Louis. Chicago and Cincinnati both games of a double-header to Cincinnati on Ohio grounds. The combined attendance was 12,000. In the American League St. Louis took two excellent games from Cleveland, and Chicago from Detroit broke even. An Adrian student pitched for Detroit in the game they won, with 6 errors behind him. The writer saw this same student, whose name is Kissinger, pitch for Detroit last Wednesday, and while he lost the game, he pitched yards high and with arms and legs as fast as a steam engine. He walks considerably like an ostrich and chews tobacco by the bale, but that boy has some speed. Last Wednesday was the first time he ever appeared in fast company, and he wasn't worried a bit. He is a "rube" to a finish, but when he gets to the ball it's going somewhere or will be something. When he learns to control his delivery a bit, and provided he don't pitch his arm off the first year, he will prove one of the greatest finds in recent years. The attendance at the two cities was 25,800. In the American League double-headers were played at Minneapolis and Milwaukee and other games were played at Kansas City and St. Paul. For the leaders Indianapolis lost and Louisville broke even with Milwaukee. None of the games predicted any unusual features and the aggregate attendance was 7,181. Milwaukee being low with 800. THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Prices of speculative commodities on the board of trade at the opening today showed a slight upward tendency in spite of a fairly good array of bearish influences. In what the dealers were steady to lower, world's supplies were large, there was a decided improvement in northwestern receipts and the weather was warmer and favorable. Trade was not large, but there was a fairly good demand, much of it from shorts who were thought to have oversold Saturday. September wheat opened unchanged to 1/4c up and 7/32c to 7/16c, sold to 7/16c and soon advanced near 7/16c. December opened unchanged at 68 1/2c, sold to 68 1/2c and held near 68 1/2c to 68 3/4c. Local receipts were 248 cars, 7 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 1,200 cars, making a total for the three points of 1,608 cars, against 908 last week and 2,411 cars for two days a year ago. A good short demand developed and strength in corn helped wheat later. December, after dipping to 88 1/2c, closed firm. Corn also added somewhat active. Receipts were 259 cars, 87 of contract grade. Frosts were reported in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, but no damage was noted early. December started 1/4c up at 43 1/4c and held steady for some time. September opened 1/4c down at 59 1/4c, but jumped to 59 1/2c and held steady near 59 1/2c. Frost reports came in as the season advanced and was the leading bullish influence in corn. The country bought moderately and prices advanced. September closed easy, 1/4c off at 85 1/2c. December closed firm, 1/4c up at 43 1/4c. Oats were easier on improved receipts and better feeling, 200 cars helped and better feeling, 200 cars helped.

STYLISH FALL FASHIONS for Men.

Not a day passes that does not bring to our tables and shelves some new and desirable articles of men's apparel. This week we opened several handsome lines of Gravenette Raincoats.

Some plain blacks and grey overcoats, and still probably water-proof. A reasonable garment.

$10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $22, $25, $30, $35, $40, $45, $50, $55, $60, $65, $70, $75, $80, $85, $90, $95, $100.

MEN'S TOP COATS.

That nobly, stylish garment, so necessary for the next few weeks. They are very short, but afford ample protection. Light overcoats, fancy overcoats and cassimeres.

$10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $22, $25, $30, $35, $40, $45, $50, $55, $60, $65, $70, $75, $80, $85, $90, $95, $100.

Men's Black and Fancy Suits.

We are so practical enough to think that in high grade, superior tailored, perfect fitting suits we are unapproachable. To the well-made, stylish, black, unadorned, worsted, particular attention is called. They look like some good old-fashioned tailor's work.

$15, $18, $20, $22.

IN FANCY SUITS

Our line comprises most of the seasons novelties—many confined to us. Browns, Greys, Greens and Olives predominate in these handsome mixtures. $10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $22. Fall hats, fall shirts, fall underwear, fall gloves ready now.

HIS TAXES ARE BOOSTED UP

ASSESSOR STILL PROBING ROTH.

Discovers $23,000 More Sequestered Property and Henry Rothschild Acknowledges Proofs.

When it comes down to tax ferrets County Assessor Egemann is what is known among the elite as Johnny-on-the-spot. This morning he not only finished up discovering $23,000 of sequestered property and proofs, but to clinch the little deal he secured the signature of the party to the return as made out by the assessor. The victim of the assessor's sleuthing, so to speak, was Henry Rothschild. Mr. Egemann completed his proof on Saturday and this forenoon sent for Mr. Rothschild. At first Mr. Rothschild insisted that he had made a complete return, but when the assessor produced his data and pointed out the items that had been overlooked he was completely overcome, but shortly afterwards recovered and at the suggestion of his son signed the blank that the assessor had prepared for his signature. Originally Mr. Rothschild turned in $1,150 of personal property for taxation, to which Assessor Egemann added $10,000, and Mr. Rothschild appealed to the state board of review.

The board sustained the assessor and the amount remained on the duplicate. Mr. Egemann immediately set about looking up other items which had come to his notice with the result that the record showed up $23,000 more in bonds, mortgage notes and judgments. As above stated when Mr. Rothschild saw the proofs he signed the return and the amount has now been placed on the books, raising his own return from $1,150 to $34,150.

J., in Noblesville, Ind., September 14, in the presence of only relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Miller left immediately on a wedding trip to his home in the east. Mr. Miller is quite well known in this city, as he travels for a large eastern concern.

INTEREST INCREASES.

A great audience, estimated at over one thousand people, crowded into the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ last night, and many were turned away unable to gain entrance. A large chorus of sixty voices under the direction of Prof. Kendall led the song service.

Evangelist Wilson preached a stirring sermon on "Remission of Sins." During the day twenty-three persons went forward to make the confession of faith and unite with the church. At the afternoon service nearly five hundred children brought pieces of twine and watched with eager interest as the evangelist bound the strings about a boy, forcibly illustrating the power of habit.

This evening a score of persons will be baptised. On Wednesday night there will be another special service, when the evangelist has announced that he will discuss the subject, "If Jesus Came to Fort Wayne What Would He See and Hear?" It promises to be a startling sermon.

Mr. Howard L. Rous, of Frankfort, Ind., has purchased a piece of property on Third street and will go into the drug business. The consideration was $2,200. Mr. I. G. Kilpatrick purchased the L. H. Currey residence on Gay street for $1,500. Mrs. Elizabeth Hazard has purchased a residence on Fletcher avenue for $1,800. The deals were all carried on through the Gregg Davis Real Estate Agency.

FAIL TO CANCEL THE CLAIM

CONTRACTORS ARE SAID TO BE CARELESS.

Complaint Is Made to Comptroller—

City Hall.

Complaint is made to the comptroller that paying and other contractors are in the habit of collecting their improvement assessments and neglecting to cancel the claim on the assessment rolls, thus leaving the original assessment stand as a lien against the property. This leaves a cloud on the title which is bound to show up on the abstract. An important real estate deal was held up since last Friday because one contractor failed to satisfy the assessment roll after collecting the assessment, and it is stated that the same contractor has unsatisfied assessments collected ten years ago. The comptroller says that he has no voice in the matter and that while he believes the trouble arises through pure carelessness, it is the duty of the property owner to see to it that the assessment is properly cancelled when he pays the assessment.

The new pumping engine at waterworks station No. 2 will probably be given a preliminary test some time this week as Contractor Dehmer expects to get the connections all made before Saturday. The engine itself, while over a month behind time, netting the city something like $750 in forfeitures, has been ready to start for considerably over a week.

NOTES AT CITY HALL.

The building boom for the season is evidently on its last legs, there not having been a building permit issued since last Thursday.

A new case of smallpox was reported on Saturday, the patient being Mrs. F. W. Kelsey at 1115 Michigan avenue.

A new case of diphtheria was reported this morning at 2026 Hanna street.

The finance committee will meet with the comptroller this evening to pass upon a number of matters referred to them at the last council meeting.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

MILLER.

John Miller, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller, of 332 West DeWald street, died at 8:20 o'clock Sunday evening from pneumonia, at the age of five months.

Funeral services will be held privately from the residence tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The remains will be placed temporarily in the receiving vault at Lindenwood and later will be taken to Princeton, N. J., for interment.

Van Deusen Cake Moulds

THE ONLY PRACTICAL AND DURABLE CAKE MOULD MADE. Being solid, they cannot leak batter, as the loose-bottom pans do, and they are more durable, and easier to operate, and the cake can be removed as easily as from any other pan, by inserting a knife through the openings at the sides to loosen it. This does away with the disagreeable work of greasing pans and produces that light, delicate cake with no greasy crust which everybody knows is the most delicious and the most healthful. We are the selling agents in Fort Wayne for all of Mrs. Van Deusen's Kitchen Helpers.

BISHOP FALLOWS CALLED IN AS ARBITRATOR.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—In an interview over the long-distance telephone with the News today John Mitchell, at Wilkesbarre, said:

"I can't predict when the anthracite strike will be settled. If anything is being done toward a settlement by the other side I don't know of it.

"Nothing towards a settlement was accomplished at the Harrisburg conference between Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, the presidents of the three anthracite districts, myself and others who have been trying to end the strike. We simply met and discussed the causes of the strike."

"Did Governor Stone represent J.
Pierpont Morgan or any of the anthracite presidents?"

"I did not understand that he was representing anyone but himself.
There is no foundation for the report that the men are to return to work on a promise that the operators will make concessions and arbitrate afterward. The miners would not return to work under such an arrangement."

Mr. Mitchell declared that the men are confident of winning and that there had been no desertions among the strikers.

"I am certainly very hopeful now that the strike will be ended in our favor," he added.

The big defense fund that is being collected at the national headquarters in Indianapolis, Mitchell said, is proving sufficient to relieve the distress in the region. About 25,000 miners have left the region since the strike began, leaving about 130,000, he explained, to be cared for. "When asked if the troops are to be withdrawn from the region, Mr. Mitchell said:

"Not that I know of. There is no need of the troops, however, as the men are orderly. They are keeping within the law."

"Is any coal being taken out of the region?"

"A little is going out, but no new coal is being mined. Most of the coal now being shipped was mined before the strike began. No mines are being started and no members of the organization are returning to work."

OPERATIONS RESUME.

Tamaqua, Pa., Sept. 15.—This morning the Greenwood colliery, situated at the western end of the Panther Creek valley resumed operations. It is impossible to learn exactly how many men are at work as the place is very heavily guarded and the operators, Heddall Brothers, will give out no definite statement.
They say, however, that they expect to wash about 300 tons of coal a day.

Today the Lehigh Valley and Navigation company claims gains in the Panther Creek valley. An official of this company said that it was expected that the daily output from the
No. 4 and No. 12 collieries would now be increased from 1,400 to 1-800 tons a day. The leaders of the mine workers ridicule the claims of the company. They say there are no more men at work today than there were last week.

No troops were sent out from Manila Park this morning, but a company was kept under arms to respond to call. No disturbance of any consequence was reported.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 15.—Right
Rev. Samuel Fallows, of Chicago, who was reported to have left that city to meet President Mitchell, of the Mine Workers, in Pittsburg today, could not be found at any of the hotels and as far as could be ascertained had not arrived there at noon. Commenting on the proposed meeting, the Chronicle-Telegraph
says this afternoon:

"An important conference is scheduled to be held in Pittsburg before the close of the day that may lead to a speedy termination of the coal miners' strike in the anthracite region. President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, and the Right Rev. Samuel Fallows, of Chicago, bishop of the diocese of the west and northwest, and rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, have arranged to meet here today.

"A great deal of secrecy has been thrown around the proposed conference and various reports are in circulation. One is to the effect that a meeting will be held with former Senator William Flinn and M. K. Mc-Mullin, who attended the early morning conference at Gov. W. A.
Stone's residence in Harrisburg the other day.

"Bishop Fallows is well known among miners and operators and he is given credit of settling a serious dispute in Illinois several years ago.
The frequent visits of President Mitchell to Chicago during the progress of the strike, it is now explained, were to hold consultations with Bishop Fallows.

"Coal operators in the Pittsburg district are greatly interested in the proposed meeting and while giving no particularly positive grounds for their opinion, say that they are confident the strike will be settled in a short time."

STEAM PIPE AT POWER STATION
BURST TODAY.

Many Houses Tied Up for Lack of Power—Damage Repaired in Two Hours.

For a matter of two hours early today every business establishment in Fort Wayne depending upon electric current to operate its elevators or other machinery was tied up effectually by a break at the power station of the Jenney Electric Light and Power company, on Spy Run avenue.
The mishap occurred at 6:50 o'clock, within a few minutes of the time when there is a big demand for current on account of beginning business for the day. A large steam pipe, six inches in diameter, which had been installed as a temporary feed for the two new boilers, burst with a loud report. Fortunately no one was near enough to sustain injury and the machinery was quickly stopped.

The accident made it impossible to operate any considerable portion of the plant, and from all over the city came a deluge of telephonic inquiries to ascertain the reason for the failure of the electric current. Newspaper offices, where the Linotype machines are operated by electric power,
the factories depending upon electricity as motive power, and elevators propelled by the current were all effectually "tied up." In some of the larger down town buildings where girls are employed in offices on the upper floors, they declined to climb
the long flights of stairways and returned home.

While patrons were suffering much inconvenience, however, the electric light people were banding every energy to make the repair as quickly as possible. Shortly before 9 o'clock the connection was re-made,
but it was necessary to run the machinery for a short time to dry it thoroughly before the "load" was thrown on. This was done shortly after 9 o'clock.

RETIRED JURIST EXPIRES AT LYNN, MASS.

Death Due to Paralysis—Was Appointed to Supreme Bench by President Arthur.

Lynn, Mass., Sept. 15.—Justice
Horace Gray, who retired from the United States supreme bench recently, died at his residence in Nahant this morning of paralysis. He had been in poor health for some time. Since his retirement he had been staying at his summer home.

Judge Gray was born in Boston, March 24, 1828, and was graduated from Harvard college in the class of 1849. He was admitted to the bar in 1851. He was reporter of the supreme judicial court of Massachusetts from 1854 to 1861. He was appointed associate justice of that court in 1864 and chief justice in 1873. President Arthur commissioned him as associate justice of the supreme court of the United States
Dec. 19, 1881.

Mrs. Jennie Ray Ormsby has returned from her trip abroad, and will hold her annual study opening on Monday, Oct. 6th. The fall recital under the auspices of the Southwick
club will be given by Prof. S. H.
Clark, of the University of Chicago,
some time in October.

ment for enlisting the hosts of workingmen throughout the United States into a semi-political organization was launched in this city, says the Post. A platform said to embrace the economical and political ideas of labor leaders and covering the whole labor situation has been prepared and will be presented first for approval next week before the Chicago Federation of Labor.

The platform demands the abolition of the so-called political machine, the establishment of government primaries where votes may be cast "for the nominees as citizens and not as members of a machine,"
and the initiative and referendum.
It favors the right of recalling representatives who are out of touch with voters. Relief from the trusts is suggested in the plan for "the passage of an amendment to the practice laws of every state and the federal government, under which litigants may bring up, in any suit in which a corporation is the defendant,
the question of its right to its franchise, whether it has usurped power not given it under statute and whether it has forfeited its powers."

This method, it is urged, would be productive of more good than the institution of suits by federal district attorneys. Vigilance committees in every state and large city are favored to see that the laws are impartially administered. The improved sanitary conditions, living wages, the recall of the laws limiting the liabilities in personal injury suits, the supplying of free text books to all children in the lower grades of public schools and the abolition of convict labor in competition with free men are demanded. Limitation on the injunction powers of judges is asked and the popular election of federal judges and senators is suggested. In all civil trials majority verdicts are desired. The plan favors the government instead of banks issuing all kinds of money and it is suggested that private individuals be driven from the banking business. Laws are demanded restricting the issue of capital stock, bond and securities to a greater extent than the actual property owned by corporations. Public ownership of public utilities is desired and state insurance and provisions for old age are approved.
Child labor is desired and educational aids and trade unionism to keep up wages are approved. In closing the platform reads:

"In order to bring about a state of harmony instead of constant discord,
the workingman must look for relief at the ballot box. Here where the will of the people is supreme the remedy lies at hand and must be taken advantage of. Workingmen must undertake to govern, as well as toll, and in that way they will get justice."

PRESIDENT'S G. A. R. ORDER.

Washington, Sept. 15.—President Roosevelt has issued the following executive order closing the departments in Washington on the day of the G. A. R. parade during the encampment next month:

"Executive Order:

"In order that the members of the Grand Army of the Republic employed in the public service in the city of Washington may have the opportunity of joining in the parade arranged for Wednesday, Oct. 8, 1902, and that all others may unite with the citizens of the District of Columbia in showing honor to the union soldiers and sailors to be gathered in the national capital on that occasion, it is hereby ordered that the several executive departments, the government printing office and the navy yard and station at Washington be closed on that day.
(Signed.) "Theodore Roosevelt."

MAY YOH'S CLAIM IGNORED.

London, Sept. 15.—Lord Francis Hope has finally settled with his creditors on the basis of a cash compromise of $2.50 in the pound sterling. The claims amounted to $100-100. In addition to this amount a claim was lodged by May Yoh, Lord Hope's divorced wife, for $45,935,

but it was utterly repudiated by the debtor.

MGR. GUIDI TO FILL SEES.

Rome, Sept. 15.—The archbishopric of Manila and the three vacant bish-oprics in the Philippines will not be filled until Mgr. Guidi, the apostolic delegate, arrives there and reports to the Vatican on the subject.

NEW PRESIDENT OF BALDWIN.

Youngstown, Ohio, Sept. 15.—The Rev. Dr. Buxton, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, has just returned from Berea, where he accepted the presidency of Baldwin university.
He assumes his new duties next June.

WAS TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL

JUDGE JOHN MORRIS SEIZED WITH PAINFUL ATTACK.

Venerable Jurist was Stricken in Court House Today—Not Thought to Be Serious.

The venerable Judge Morris was suddenly taken seriously ill in the court house this afternoon, shortly after 1 o'clock. He was found by Deputy Trustee Kramer in the corridors standing in a very much stooped position and moaning as if in great pain. The aged jurist was assisted into the trustee's office and Dr. John Schilling, who was close by, was called in, while telephone messages were sent to his sons, who speedily responded. Judge Morris was suffering from severe stomach and bowel cramps and he was evidently in extreme pain. After a few minutes he revived sufficiently to be placed in a carriage and was conveyed to his home, accompanied by his sons. It is the first time that the venerable jurist has suffered any serious indisposition in a number of years, but no serious results from the present attack are apprehended.

SENATORS DEFER ACTION ON CODE MEASURE.

No Action for Some Weeks—House Committee Is Unfriendly to the Senate Recommendations.

Columbus, O., Sept. 15.—The select committee of the lower branch of the Ohio legislature temporarily hung up the Nash municipal code bill at a meeting today. The senate some time ago adopted this bill as a basis upon which to work, but the members of the house committee who are considering the measure are not friendly to the bill and they refuse to adopt it on the ground that they would thus commit themselves to vote for the bill at the time a report is formulated. The committee took a recess with a motion to adopt the bill still pending. It is possible that an understanding will be reached at a later meeting. Present indications seem to point to at least three weeks continuous session before the public will be ready to vote upon the bill as a whole and even then it will in no wise resemble any of the bills now pending. There will be sessions of conference committees
the week following so that it will be more than a month before the municipal government question in Ohio shall be settled.

BUYS A BUSINESS BUILDING

E. B. KUNKLE MAKES A $13,000 INVESTMENT.

Louis Mohr Sells West Wayne Street
Business Property This Afternoon.

E. B. Kunkle today made an additional $13,000 investment in down town business property and he became the owner of desirable real estate on West Wayne street, near Calhoun.

The purchase was the three-story
stone front building owned by Louis Mohr, and now occupied by Freibur-ger & Michel as a grocery house.
The property is 30x150 feet in size and is regarded as a valuable acquisition.

The price, as stated, was $13,000,
and Mr. Kunkle quietly counted out the amount in cold cash. The deal was negotiated by the Lennart & Forbaugh agency and is one of the largest recent transfers of down town property.

BLOW TO REBELS

THE COLOMBIAN GOVERNMENT
SCORES A POINT.

GENERAL CARREAZO QUILTS

LEADER OF THE REVOLUTION-ARY FORCES SURRENDERS.

VICTORIES MEAN PACIFICATION OF LARGE DISTRICT.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The state department has received a cablegram from Minister Hart, at Bogota, Colombia, which says that the revolutionary general, Carreazo, who has been operating with a strong force on the great plains east of Bogota, has surrendered. This is regarded as of the utmost importance to the government authorities, who consider that it assures the pacification of the whole eastern region. The Colombian government also has announced the repulse by a government war vessel of a revolutionary attack
some days ago upon the Magdalena river.

REINFORCEMENTS EN ROUTE.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Senator Concha, the Colombian minister, received a cablegram today, dated September 13, and signed by President Marroquin, Secretary of State Paul and Secretary of War Fernandez, which stated the 5,000 government troops under the command of General Perdomax had started down the Magdalena river to reinforce the government troops on the isthmus. The cablegram also stated that 15,000 additional government troops were held in readiness to move to the isthmus and that the interior was quiet.

Colon, Colombia, Sept. 15.—The United States cruiser Cincinnati arrived here today from Haytian waters.

The isthmian situation is unchanged.

There are no definite indications of the intention of General Herrera to immediately attack the isthmus.

THEY SANG LOUD IN CHORUS

HE WANTED MONEY AND GOT A SCARE.

A Hobo Tried to Hold Up Two Ladies and Was Frightened Out of a Year's Growth.

Shortly after 7 o'clock last night
Miss Anna Donaldson, of Poplar street, bookkeeper at Patterson's store, and Miss Hatfield, stenographer at Messman & Yarnell's, while passing west on West Berry street were approached by a man who demanded their money. Both ladies did what any lady would do under the circumstances—they screamed lustily, attracting the attention of other pedestrians and scaring the hold-up man so that he jumped more than forty feet on the first jump and then disappeared down an alley.
Harry Hanna was the first man to reach the spot, and he with others who soon arrived speedily allayed the fears of the ladies, who were badly frightened but not hurt. An overzealous contemporary in relating the story gave it a lurid hue by putting a gun into the hands of the footpad.
The ladies say that if the man had a gun they did not see it, and, in fact, they know he had no gun, for should there have been a gun mixed up in the affair they know they should have gone straight up. The officers are of the opinion that the hold-up was some hobo who was foraging for the price of a drink or two, which he thought would be easy money, and he was entirely unprepared for the festal chorus with which he was greeted. It is a matter of doubt which was the most thoroughly frightened, the ladies or the hobo.

WERE OVERCOME BY GAS.

The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McVey, of No. 3 DeGraff street, had a narrow escape from asphyxiation by inhaling burnt gas fumes Sunday morning. One of the young women awakened at an early hour yesterday morning and found that she could scarcely breathe. She called to her parents, who were sleeping in another part of the house, and Dr. McOscar was sent for. The physician worked the greater part of the day with the young women and in the afternoon pronounced them out of danger, although they are still quite sick. The accumulation of gas in the living rooms was caused by the stopping up of the chimney in the kitchen.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 15.—Attorney General Pratt is today preparing a petition for injunction to be filed in Jefferson circuit court tomorrow, restraining the Southern Athletic club, of Louisville, from permitting the Corbett-McGovern fight in that city or elsewhere in Kentucky. A half-dozen leading lawyers in Louisville will be associated with the attorney for the commonwealth. The case will be heard at Louisville Wednesday.

FOR PRESIDENT'S VISIT IN FORT WAYNE.

Reception Committee at Work Today
—Cortelyou Approves Plans
as Outlined.

It is designed to have the various military societies of the city in line
as a military escort to President Roosevelt when he visits Fort Wayne September 23, to participate in the exercises in connection with the dedication of the court house.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock Chairman Berghoff's reception committee went into session in the county commissioners' room to agree upon final details for the reception of President Roosevelt. At this meeting a program will be prepared in detail covering the work of the committee, and invitations will be extended to the military companies in the city to turn out as an escort to the distinguished guest.

APPROVES THE PLANS.

Secretary Cortelyou has approved the plans for the president's visit as outlined to him by Chairman S. M.
Foster, of the general executive committee. A telegram from the secretary to Mr. Foster announces also that the hour for the president's arrival has been fixed at 6:45 p. m., fifteen minutes later than previously announced. The telegram follows:

"White House, Washington, Sept.
12, 1902.—Samuel M. Foster, chairman executive committee, Fort Wayne, Ind.: Referring to your letter and telegram of 2d inst., program submitted is satisfactory. Your understanding as to place of arrival and departure is correct. Personnel of party will be sent you shortly; also detailed instructions, which should have most careful attention. Final itinerary contemplates reaching Fort Wayne at 6:45 p. m. and leaving at 7:45 p. m.

WAS BADLY HURT IN A FALL

C. H. COLTON TIMBERED DOWN CELLAR STAIRS.

Sustained Painful Injuries and Has Been Only Semi-Conscious for Several Days.

C. H. Colton, of the firm of Colton, Samberg & Co., who conduct a tea store at 122 West Main street, is lying in a semi-conscious condition in his apartments in Dodge's boarding house, as the result of a fall down the cellar steps at his store last Thursday night.

Mr. Colton dropped asleep while writing some letters, and when he awoke he started down stairs, but missed his footing and fell to the bottom. He struck his head on the corner of the foundation and a portion of the scalp was torn off, exposing several inches of the skull. Mr. Colton has no distinct recollection of what has occurred since that time, and yet remains in a partially dazed condition. Dr. W. F. Schander sewed up the cut. The physicians in charge have not yet definitely determined whether a fracture of the skull exists or not.

TWO DAYS' CONVENTION.

Special meetings for bible study
are being held at the Home mission, 118 East Columbia street, today at 2 and 7 p. m. and tomorrow at 10 a. m., 2 and 7 p. m. The workers presented include J. E. Ramseyer, of Bluffton, Ohio; L. B. Taylor, of Allentown, Pa.; A. M. Clauser, of Groveland, Ill.;
D. Y. Schultz, of Pittsburg, and Peter Eichen, of Zurich, Can. The public is cordially invited.

GETS NO CHARTER

CHRISTIAN SCIENCES' CHURCH
APPLICATION REFUSED.

JUDGE ARNOLD'S DECISION
SAYS IT IS A CORPORATION FOR PROFIT.

BUSINESS AND NOT RELIGION

PHILADELPHIA JUDGE HANDS
DOWNS OPINION.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—The application for a charter made by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, was refused today by Judge Arnold in the common pleas court. In his opinion Judge Arnold says:

"The charter applied for in this case covers a double purpose—a church and a business. We have power to grant a charter for a church, but we have no authority to grant
a charter for a corporation for profit;
that is, a business corporation." and Continuing, the court quotes from the text book of Mary Baker G.
Eddy, instructions to Christian Scientists to sell and circulate the publications of Mrs. Eddy, failure to do the same being sufficient cause for expulsion from membership in the church.

"This shows," says the court,
"that the so-called church is a corporation for profit, organized to enforce the sale of Mrs. Eddy's books by its members, which is a matter of business and not of religion. As the courts have no power to charter such a corporation, the application for a charter is refused."

HER RACE AGAINST DEATH

STEAMER MAKES PORT IN NICK
OF TIME.

Lake Vessel Reaches St. Joseph Harbor With Her Hull Filled With Water.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 15.—A special to the Journal from St. Joseph, Michigan, says:

"The steamer R. J. Gordon, of South Haven, arrived at this port at 3 o'clock this morning with four feet of water in her hold and rapidly sinking.

The boat left South Haven at 10 o'clock last night for Chicago, in command of Capt. Chas. Spooner.
Upon leaving South Haven a heavy sea was encountered and the steamer struck a sunken log. No attention was paid to the accident at the time, but when the steamer was twelve miles off St. Joseph, the engineer, rushed on deck and said that she was leaking badly.

Captain Spooner headed for St. Joe and the waterlogged steamer struggled along slowly. At 3 o'clock she entered the piers at St. Joe just ready to sink, the water being within two inches of the furnace fires.

CLASH IN A STREET CAR.

There were lively doings in a Belt line car on Broadway for a few moments Sunday evening, after Conductor Dürman had fruitlessly protested against the conduct of a passenger. The latter did not subside and a pugilistic encounter followed,
the exchange of compliments of this sort being strenuous for a time. Each landed a number of blows, but the net damage was small, though the conductor finally enforced discipline.

COLDEST ON RECORD.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 15.—The government thermometer at the weather bureau here last night registered 43 degrees above zero, the lowest point ever reached during the first half of September since the establishment of the office thirty years ago. There was a light frost, which it is believed did but little damage.

Reports received at the local weather bureau indicate that the frost was general throughout the state, and extremely heavy in the southern part.

PRESIDENT DISPLEASED WITH MEMORIAL ADDRESS.

RECTOR SEES DANGER AHEAD

HE SCORED MONEY POWER AND PRAISED ROOSEVELT.

MCKINLEY'S MEMORY IS UNIVERSALLY HONORED.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 15.—President Roosevelt sat in a church pew yesterday and heard a minister refer to him as having been providentially promoted to the presidency of the United States. He was called a David who would save the nation from the power of money. His attitude toward the trusters unexpectedly found a champion to do battle against the criticism. But the president was not pleased with the sermon. He did not approve of the utterances.

Rev. Henry Homer Washburn, rector of Christ Episcopal church, who had been especially invited by Mr. Roosevelt to preach a McKinley memorial sermon, is the clergyman who warned not only the president but his congregation that the American union was approaching another crisis. The money power was threatening the very life of the republic. Mr. Roosevelt, he went on, did not become president by chance. A mighty foe to keep this money power in check was necessary. Mr. Roosevelt, as he had already shown by his attacks on the trusts, was divinely appointed to lead the fight for liberty.

President Roosevelt's face became red as the preacher extolled his virtues. He shifted uneasily in his seat and was plainly restless and disturbed by the utterances. When the sermon was at an end the president turned to his wife and whispered, "He should not have done that."

RECTOR'S ADDRESS

Mr. Washburn's discourse was an indictment of the president's efforts to place great corporations under government control. But so complete was it with broad battery of the nation's chief executive, who cut before him so direct were his allusions to the personality of the president, that the latter was thunder-struck and could not contain his vexation.

"Who could fill his place?" exclaimed Mr. Washburn in speaking of President McKinley. "Fortunately a David was vice president. Many said he was too young to be president, that youth is apt to be impetuous. How the love of him is filling the hearts of the people. What one serious mistake has he made?"

President Roosevelt fairly writhed and his face flushed. His ears turned purple as the accusations reflected his honesty, his bravery, his positive convictions, his pure, frankness, his impartiality, his independence and innumerable other qualities.

Dr. Washburn took for his text the fourth and fifth verses of the fourth chapter of Galatians. After enunciating the sanctified president's sins.

"The country had not been so prosperous as on that day when the report of a pistol started the nation and numbered Mr. McKinley with our martyred presidents. Who can read history and believe that the course of events happened by chance? It was by no accident that Jesus destroyed the great Nazareth to be crucified. McKinley has had a great success."

"In only one thing do some of President Roosevelt's friends fear he is making a mistake—that is regarding the trusts. He had better let them have a free hand, they say, and work out their ends."

SEEK'S GOOD OF ALL.

But evidently he has studied trust methods, and is convinced that the good of all demands that trust be brought under the control of the national government. Is not this sense judgment? Is not this a conservative proposition? How can one have any knowledge of human nature and not see the possibility of danger coming by and through the unguarded use of great wealth concentrated in the hands of a few?

"You men of 'good trusts' and 'bad trusts.' What does this mean if not that the unscrupulous men already at the head of certain trusts are planning methods to cheat, rob and oppress? Evidently the president sees and is convinced of the possibility of danger. If ever circumstances indicated that one was placed providentially in the executive chair of the nation, then the circumstances that attended the promotion of Mr. Roosevelt so indicate. If words mean anything, his motives contemplate the good of all. From past experience with him we know that he will labor toward that end, come what may."

CAUSES GREAT SURPRISE.

While the rector was speaking the eyes of hundreds in the crowded church were turned upon the president, who stated after the services that he had requested Mr. Washburn to hold memorial services, but that he had no knowledge of what the sermon contained, nor had he any intimation that the rector would refer to the trusts or himself. Mr. Washburn also stated that he had prepared the sermon without consulting any members of the president's family.

THE DAY IN CANTON.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 15.—Judge William R. Day delivered the chief McKinley memorial day address here yesterday in the First M. E. church, of which the late president was a member and at which the funeral was held September 19, 1901. The only decorations were flowers and a portrait of the late president, around which were the folds of the stars and stripes, emblematic of the patriotic spirit of McKinley.

In addition to the tribute paid by Judge Day, who was secretary of state in McKinley's cabinet and a close friend and adviser to the martyred president, there was a general observance of the day in Canton, which claimed him as its own. From almost every pulpit there was reference in prayer or an address to him and his work. His favorite hymns were used.

Although deeply conscious of the fact that it was just one year ago that her husband died, Mrs. McKinley did not vary the program followed by her for several months. All days to her have been memorial days. Her usual trip to Westtown cemetery was taken in the forenoon, and she laid love's offering of flowers on the casket that contains the remains of the nation's martyred chief. Mrs. Garret A. Hobart, who is her guest, went with her into the McKinley tomb and also laid a bouquet of flowers on the coffin. Their subsequent drive took them to the McKinley family burial lot, where the daily bouquets were laid by Mrs. McKinley's direction. The afternoon and evening were spent at the McKinley home. During the day there were many visitors at the McKinley vault.

AT SCENE OF TRAGEDY.

Buffalo, Sept. 15.—The anniversary of the death of William McKinley was universally observed in this city yesterday. The pastors in all the churches paid tribute to the memory of the martyred president and his favorite hymn, "Remember My God, to Thee," and "Lead, Kindly Light," were sung by the worshippers in small chapels and missions and gloriously intoned on the great organs in the larger churches, seemingly with special significance and fervor. In the afternoon a public meeting was held in the city convention hall. The auditorium was crowded and hundreds were turned away. Despite the presence of the immense throng, a reverent quiet prevailed throughout the service. The interior of the hall was decorated with the national colors. A large oil painting of the dead president, festooned in flags, faced the audience. Over the platform was a banner inscribed with the words uttered by the president on his death bed, "It is God's way." Mayor Erasmus C. Knight presided.

Dispatches received by The Sentinel from all parts of the country bear ample and eloquent evidence of the regard with which the late President McKinley is still held in the hearts of his countrymen, and the sincerity and unanimity of the tribute rendered to his memory on the first anniversary of his death. No town was too small, no city was too big and busy, no cross roads was too isolated to collect its quota of crowd of men and women of almost every nationality, race and religion, at the memorial services held in thousands of churches and school houses. Everywhere the theme was the same, the strength and purity of the dead president's character, his patriotism and the tenderness of his domestic life.

TAKE PART IN MANEUVERS.

Lieut. Frank E. Davis, of this city, now with the Eighth cavalry, stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, has written a friend in the city that he will leave this week with his troops for Fort Riley, Kan., to participate in the army maneuvers there. It is a five hundred mile trip, and will be made on horseback. Lieutenant J. W. Leonard, of the Twenty-second infantry, another Fort Wayne soldier, is on his way from Fort Crook, Neb., to Fort Riley for the same purpose.

MAS RIG RIVER CONTRACT.

John Sprankle, jr., of Abelle township, has returned from Michigan, where he has a large contract for widening and deepening Cass river, near its mouth, upon which he has been engaged for about eighteen months. On Friday he secured another thirteen-mile contract for similar work upon a branch of the same river. The contract, Mr. Sprankle says, has been a profitable one.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR MARTYRED MCKINLEY.

Rev. J. B. Fleming Makes a Strong Address—Services at Plymouth Church.

Memorial services in honor of President McKinley were held last evening in Westminster Presbyterian church and a beautiful program was carried out. Special numbers were sung by Westminster quartet, the service closing with the singing of "March My God to Thee," the late president's favorite hymn.

Rev. Fleming paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the dead statesman, setting forth his life as a perfect example for young men to follow. In the course of his address, Rev. Fleming denounced anarchy and spoke pathetically of the laxity in the enforcement of laws passed for the restraint of the mob. "In my opinion," said Rev. Fleming, "the enforcement of men in high office by the newspapers does much to foster anarchistic ideas. I speak of the cartoons that exaggerate conditions and induce the minds of the more impressionable, begetting a lack of respect for those in office that may lead to serious consequences. I believe laws should be passed to entirely prohibit this kind of cartoon or at least to keep them within bounds."

AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

Plymouth Congregational church was crowded to the doors yesterday at the memorial services held in honor of the late President McKinley. Rev. Bailey's text was "This is the Fruit of It." He reviewed the life of the late president and the reasons in manhood, honesty and piety it contained and told graphically the story of the president's last few days of life and his death. At the conclusion of the sermon communion was celebrated, and new members were received into the church.

MISSION BOARD'S REPORT.

Boston, Sept. 15.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions has balanced its books for its fiscal year ended Aug. 31st, and today made public the following financial statement:

The expenditures for twelve months to Aug. 31, 1902, were $741,303, and the regular receipts for the year were $742,764, leaving a balance on hand Sept. 1st, of $1,481.

The gains of the year have been from legacies and women's boards. The debt of a year ago, amounting to $102,341, has been entirely cancelled through the redemption of pledges given at the Hartford meeting last October.

The ninety-third annual meeting of the board will be held in Oberlin, Ohio, Oct. 14 to 17. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn.

This store's stock, or as much of it as you need, is yours. Select what you want—get the salesman to open an account for you. We don't ask to see your bank book. In fact, it's for the poor man, or woman, that our chain of stores has been established throughout the country. The very so-called tony establishments that would refuse a poor man credit depend themselves for their existence upon credit they obtain from the banks and wholesale commercial establishments. Credit is free here—free as the air you breathe. Any honest man or woman is entitled to it. And this confidence in the public is rarely abused, as our very small percentage of losses demonstrates.

With regard to the search of medical science for the smallpox germ it seems highly unnecessary. No one wants it.

Having escaped from the New England trolley car the president will doubtless feel quite safe when he once more gets among his old friends, the mountain lions.

Less than the average annual amount of hops and tobacco was raised in Kansas this season. This shows that Mrs. Nation is not without influence in her own bailiwick.

The importance of wireless telegraphy was conclusively demonstrated during the war maneuvers. With that improvement the forts and ships could have informed each other that each had destroyed the other.

There are about 335,000 Germans in Canada, mainly in the eastern frontier districts. There are 3,000 Germans in British Columbia. In several Canadian towns the German element amounts to from 60 to 82 per cent of the whole population.

England is having its weather troubles, too. Violent gales have swept the west coast and steamship service has been suspended. Great damage has been done by wind, rain and floods. The elements this year seem to have broken loose everywhere. But on the whole the United States has been fortunate as compared with other countries, where the devastation by volcano, earthquake, wind and water has been great.

Bee stings are recommended as a cure for the rheumatism. Whether the cure will be permanent may not be demonstrated; but it is certain that a sufficient dose will distract the attention of the sufferer from his rheumatic pains for the time being.

In eight months of the present year the losses from fires in the United States have been $3,000,000 less than in 1901 and $22,000,000 less than in 1900. If the difference indicates a settled tendency the people of this country may well congratulate themselves.

David Turpie, formerly United States senator from Indiana, is passing his declining years in his comfortable Indianapolis home. Mr. Turpie declines to be interviewed, saying he has absolutely retired from public life. “It seems to me,” he said recently, “that newspapers give too much space to trivial matters. Twenty-five years ago the reporters only sought interviews on subjects of moment. I don't think they are so careful nowadays.”

Sir Thomas Lipton is providing for the construction of another cup challenger. For the third time he will “cross the pond” to try his luck at “lifting the cup.” The last time he was here a feeling of uneasiness prevailed lest the splendid yacht which he brought, the product of months of careful British designing, would leave the American boat behind. But all misgivings were groundless, since the Columbia bent her rival in Shamrock weather. Still, every time Lipton builds a boat he improves upon the one before. Thus it behooves our yachtsmen to be “up and doing,” keeping the fact well in mind that Sir Thomas is serious in his desire for victory and that he has the necessary yellow metal to warrant his keeping “everlastingly at it.” He is an enterprising merchant, as all may know, but perhaps somebody has not heard the story that when one of his vessels laden with Lipton's teas was foundering the crew was set at work immediately in painting advertisements for Lipton's merchandise on the wreckage. The story has a saline flavor, but it illustrates the prevailing ideas of the famous merchant's character.

Miss Della Wright, Cleaning Ribbons With Gasoline, Meets Frightful Fate.

North Manchester, Ind., Sept. 15.—Miss Della Wright, 20 years of age, daughter of Rev. John Wright, a German Baptist minister residing near this place, was burned to death Friday night.

Her parents were absent from home and the young woman was engaged in cleaning ribbons with gasoline and drying them around the stove, when they caught fire and instantly the fluid on her hands was all ablaze. The flames communicated to her clothing and the frightened girl rushed out doors in the rain and rolled in the wet grass. She succeeded in extinguishing the blaze, but not until she was burned almost to a crisp. Although suffering terrible agony and with the nails dropping from her fingers, she realized that the house was on fire and with no one there to help, the young woman heroically gathered a bucket and pumped several pails of water which she dashed upon the fire in the house and fell exhausted upon the floor just as she had succeeded in putting out the fire. By this time neighbors who had heard her screams rushed in and summoned a physician and everything possible was done for her relief but she passed away about midnight after hours of terrible suffering. She was one of the most popular and highly respected young women in this community.

ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING IN ADAMS TOWNSHIP.

Congressman Robinson and Lew V. Ulrey Deliver Addresses—Township Ticket Named.

Center school house in Adams township was the scene of the first political gathering of the campaign Saturday evening and much enthusiasm prevailed. The convention was largely attended, many prominent democrats from all over the county being present, including the candidates on the county ticket. Committeeman Michael Sheridan called the meeting to order and Christian Schlauhoff was elected chairman, J. Herman Bueker being chosen secretary. Lew V. Ulrey, candidate for state senator, made an address, which was well received, and nominations were made as follows:

Advisory Board—Herman Schnelker, Henry Linker, John Brown.

Justices of the Peace—James A. Crippen, of New Haven, and James E. Bird, of Fort Wayne.

Constable—Barney Schoenfeldt, New Haven.

Supervisors—B. W. Stoner, William Engelbrecht, Fred Koch, William Reed.

The decision to hold the next township convention in New Haven was the concluding business of the convention, and Congressman Robinson was called upon for an address. He presented an able discussion of the political issues of the day, confining his remarks chiefly to the tariff and the trusts, and his telling points were cheered to the echo.

The committeemen are making active preparations for the campaign and assignment of speakers is now being made. Mr. Robinson and Mr. Ulrey will speak Wednesday evening at the school house near the county infirmary and on Thursday evening Mr. Robinson is to speak at Jefferson Center. The Pleasant township convention will be held at Center school house Saturday evening, Sept. 27.

STRONG TEAM FORMED.

At a meeting of foot ball players, held in the assembly room of the court house Saturday evening, a strong team was formed, which will be backed by the management of Wolf Bros.' clothing house. Harry B. Corazzi, of the Wolf store, is financial manager of the team, and Fred Hart is schedule manager. Several members of the team were on the Liberty hall eleven last year, and three will be several new players, among them Henderson and Miller, formerly of Auburn, the former back of the line and the latter at quarter, and also Johnson and Davis, who played on last year's Purdue team. Other players are, Fred Schultz, Heckman, McCarthy and Schultz, who played center for Liberty hall last season. Herman Brown will be captain of the team. Half Back Evans, of last year's Liberty hall team, will not play this year. The following games have been secured by Manager Hart: October 4, Decatur; October 11, Huntington; October 18, Wolf team at Huntington; October 25, Van Wert; November 1, Wabash; November 8, Wolf team at Van Wert; November 15, Kendallville; Nov. 22, Wolf team at Decatur; Thanksgiving day, open.

NAMES FORT WAYNE SOLDIERS.

In the general order just issued by Charles L. Jewett, of New Albany, commander of the Spanish American War Veterans' association, a number of Fort Wayne soldiers have been honored. Capt. Newton W. Gilbert is named as a member of the council of administration, Lieutenant John C. Jackson is named a delegate to the national encampment at Indianapolis September 22, 23 and 24, and Capt. W. E. Ranke and Capt. Otto C. Meyers are appointed aids on the staff of the department commander.

CZAR WILL IGNORE VATICAN.

Rome, Sept. 15.—The announcement that the czar when he returns the visit of King Victor Emmanuel, will not call on the pope, has seriously disturbed the vatican. It is said that the Russian minister to the holy see will purposely, be absent from Rome during the sojourn of the czar here, so as to render it easier to ignore the vatican. Papal diplomacy is doing its utmost to prevent such an awkward incident, which is attributed to the desire of the czar to show his displeasure at the pope's action in withdrawing the papal nuncio from The Hague because he was not invited to take part in the peace congress.

ITS GROWTH ABROAD.

Boston, Sept. 15.—Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, arrived this morning on the steamship Marion, from Liverpool. He looked exceptionally well after his six months' tour through Europe, and expressed himself as highly gratified with the progress the society is making abroad.

During his trip Dr. Clark visited twenty different countries, traveling nearly 33,000 miles. He attended 200 meetings, and his addresses have been translated into 10 different tongues. He said that in Great Britain there are 10,000 Christian Endeavor societies, having a membership of fully 800,000. London leads the world in the number of members, having 700 societies. Philadelphia and Chicago, he said, were formerly in the lead in this respect, but the English metropolis has now surpassed them.

The society is progressing in Italy, Sweden, Spain and Bulgaria, and Germany, Sweden and France have joined the Christian Endeavor union, working in conjunction with the union in this country.

COLORED YOUTH FOR HARVARD

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 15. Willis O. Tyler, the young colored man of Monroe county, who won the state oratorical contest in 1901 and took fourth place in a field with ten contestants in the interstate oratorical in Iowa, will enter Harvard law school. He graduated at the state university this year in the department of history and political science. Tyler has made his way through college and is resolved to earn enough at Harvard to pay his expenses, otherwise he cannot attend. He has in mind table waiting. At the state university he shined shoes, barbered and ran errands.

DEDICATE ORGAN OCTOBER 8.

An organ recital will be given at the Third Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, Oct. 2d, on the occasion of dedicating the new instrument, which was installed by the Kilgan Organ company, of St. Louis, last week. Harrison Wilde, of Chicago, an organist instructor of national repute, will give the recital and he will be assisted by the Mayn, Linden and Apollo quartets. The new organ will be used for the first time next Sunday.

OUT OF FRENCH POLITICS.

Rome, Sept. 15. Replying to the request of the French ambassador to the vatican, who wished to secure for a French newspaper man an interview with the pope, the papal secretary of state, Cardinal Rampolla, in explaining the impossibility of so doing, said: “The pope resolved months ago not to utter a word himself and ordered us not to utter a word which might be interpreted either for or against French policy or serve the interests of party politics.”

GOBBLES ANOTHER LINE.

New York, Sept. 15.—It is stated that J. R. Ellerman has disposed of the Antwerp-Montreal line of steamers to the Morgan shipping syndicate of the Tribune. When the Leyland line was sold to the American combination, Mr. Ellerman retained the Antwerp-Montreal service, together with the Mediterranean and Lisbon and Oporto traders.

FOURTEEN ARE DROWNED.

Colombo, Ceylon, Sept. 15.—It is now learned that the British steamer Nithsdale, news of the grounding of which on a reef south of Carina island, in the Indian ocean, September 8, was received here Friday last, has foundered. Part of her crew has been brought to this port. The captain and thirteen men are believed to have been drowned.

“TIPS” WILL GIVE A DANCE.

THE MONDAY POLICE GRIST

JUDGE DREIBELHUIS HAS BATCH OF OFFENDERS.

Keever's Columbia Street Place Railroad Saturday Night and the inmates Appear in Court.

The principal interest at police court this morning was centered in the trials of Blanche Rowe, charged with frequenting a house of ill fame, and Nora Keever, charged with keeping a house of ill fame. The case against Mrs. Keever was continued until Thursday morning and that of Blanche Rowe was taken under advisement until that time.

The arrests were made on Saturday night by Captain Whitney, Detective Coling and Officer Strodel, who were instructed to visit the Columbia street houses and arrest all women found in rooms connected with saloons. The Rowe woman was found in bed on the third story of Keever's Columbia street place and she and Mrs. Keever were taken in on the charges mentioned above. Miss Rowe stated to the officer that she was there for no immoral purposes, but confided to Detective Coling that she had taken several slugs of Columbia street red-eye. Blanche told a delightful tale of reformation, and while admitting that she had been arrested several times for immorality, said she had turned over a new leaf and was working at an overall factory and boarded with a man named Allen at 113 Thomas street. Asked whether she had not recently been employed at Charles Hunt's unsavory establishment, she denied it in most vigorous terms and declared she was so good that her face almost hurt her sometimes. Unfortunately for the stability of Blanche's testimony, it was proven that there is no No. 113 Thomas street, old or new number, and that no person by the name of Allen lives on that street. Then again, Officer Kelly testified that Miss Rowe was employed at Hunt's place not less than four weeks during July and August, and that he had spoken to her three or four times and seen her oftener while going through the place semi-weekly according to instructions. Superintendent Gorsline and several other officers testified to the same effect. Mrs. Keever denied most vigorously that her husband's place is a house of ill fame and tried to lead the court to believe that their new saloon felt very little short of a gospel mission, and that if girls come there it was principally to get pointers on the modus operandi of reformation or to get cured of the colic. The officers smiled and the court continued the case to Thursday. Meantime Mr. Keever has a job lot of unpaid fines on the docket, long past due, one of sufficient pendency to put a double kink in a sixty dollar bill. Judge Dreibelhuis ordered the unpaid fines to be collected forthwith, whereas a look of grim determination and satisfaction spread over the open plain of Lieutenant Lipp's countenance like a tidal wave.

O'CALLAHAN'S PLEDGE.
John O'Callahan presented a rather woo-begone appearance and had nearly a square yard of surfacing skinned off his forehead and eyebrows. He was charged with being drunk and when asked to plead he started in on an oration. He wanted to explain things and commenced by inquiring what particular day he was supposed to have been drunk. He said he guessed he must have been a little hoony, but couldn't quite remember when it was. The judge then picked up a piece of paper upon which was inscribed a blood-curdling oath subscribed to by O'Callahan, pledging the subscriber not to touch, taste nor handle intoxicating liquors or cross a threshold where they are sold until December 25, 1902. The oath was evidently framed by Captain Kidd or Bluebeard the Pirate. Judge Dreibelhuis read the pledge aloud and asked O'Callahan whether he had signed it, to which he responded that he had. The court then remarked that a man who would sign a document like that in the first place ought to get six months on general principles, and a man who would break it after having signed it ought to get life. He compromised, however, by fining him $5 and costs, the limit, whereas Mr. O'Callahan wanted to do some more talking, but was shut up. During his drunk he had put in several nights prowling around the bishop's residence and insulting the servants whenever they appeared in sight.

HE TALKED BAD.

A young man of excellent family was arrested for profanity and pleaded guilty. The judge assessed a fine of $1 and costs and supplemented it with a lecture. He told the man that he would give him the limit and add a jail sentence if he was ever brought before him again; he advised him to go home, where he belonged, and stay there if he wanted to keep out of trouble. Meanwhile a Mrs. Reitze hovered about the young man in the court room and finally with a profusion of tears left, ostensibly to get the money to pay the fine. Another charge of resisting an officer has been placed against the young man, which will be tried as soon as the other case is cleared from the docket. The prisoner was arrested at Mrs. Reitze's home, where the two were having a quarrel and he was threatening violence to Mrs. Reitze. During the melee he used hot, burning words that shocked the officer to the arresting point.

THE CASE OF MR. CAMPBELL.

William B. Campbell, a young man with cotton pants and gold spectacles, was charged with vagrancy, to which he pleaded not guilty in indignant tones. He said that he is the agent for a clothes rack and that his firm sent him here to do business. On cross-examination he said he had sold two racks during the past week, upon which his commission was one plank, and that he was an honest, law-abiding citizen engaged in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match with hard luck. Detective Coling had different views on the proposition. He said that Campbell is a common sneak-thief. He was a "piker" and "capper" for Chicago gambling houses when there and was in Fort Wayne several months ago, and was ordered out of town. When here before he robbed a bell boy at the Wayne hotel and was forced to disgorge, and was threatened with arrest if he ever showed up there again. At the Randall, according to Coling, he raised an order for two bottles of wine and is supposed to be connected with the disappearance of a watch at that place. The detective said that every place that Campbell had been something disappeared at the same time that he did. Campbell admitted to having been ordered off the streets and also confessed that he was a hanger-on at Chicago gambling houses. The judge continued the case until Thursday to give the officers a chance to make further investigations. Bail was fixed at $100 and Mr. Campbell retired to the Hotel de Stout.

THE OTHER CASE WAS THAT OF DAVID BROWN, which is not his name, who is a neat, nice looking fellow, with a keen relish for the rye jar. Mr. Brown pleaded guilty in well modulated and dulcet tones and looked grateful when the judge sent him over for eleven days.

POLICE NOTES.

Mr. Wan Lung, or something of that kind, who conducts a washhouse at the corner of Lewis and Lafayette streets, is becoming Amurized rapidly and steps high as he keeps along with the procession of progress. His latest improvement is a burglar alarm. It is a little crude, but it fills the bill, and consists of a bell and a string connected with his door knob so arranged that a twist of the knob rings the bell. Last night the bell rang and Mr. Lung commenced investigating for burglars. He found evidence, but no burglars, and then he reported the matter to the police.

Last week I. Mantour's handsome fox terrier, "Dodie," was stolen, and yesterday "Doc," "Dodie's" father, disappeared. "Doc" is owned by Ed Kleindienst and is a thoroughbred and a bench show prize winner. He is very handsome and one of the best known dogs in the downtown district.

Leon Struder, janitor at the Masonic Temple, found a coal hole on the sidewalk open yesterday and went down into the cellar to fix it. While he was going a man came along, stepped on the edge of the scuttle cover, which tilted, and let the man's leg down into the hole, barking off a lot of skin. While the man was rubbing his shin the air grew sulphurous from the remarks he made, and Leon overheard him say things about the Temple management and coal holes in general that would melt the type on an ordinary press if they should be printed.

Somebody who has it in for the police department broke the lock on patrol box 46 last night.

PROBING THE BOODLE COMBINE.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 15.—Circuit Attorney Polk has found that it will not be necessary for him to go to Jefferson City today to answer the habeas corpus proceedings that were brought before the supreme court to secure the release of the five men accused of boodling, now held in the jail at the four courts. The grand jury therefore continued its inquiry into the city lighting and other legislation.

Subpoenas have been served on all the members of the present house of delegates to appear before the grand jury today. They will be questioned as to what they know about the city lighting bill and of the recent defeat of measures introduced for the regulation of the street car traffic in St. Louis. It is alleged, despite the outcry against the frauds which then had been uncovered, that the covert use of $68,000 in the house defeated the street car bill mentioned.

BEGAN ON MAUMEE AVENUE

PAVING CONTRACTOR SAYS HE WILL SHOW SOME SPEED.

Many White Horses on the Job—Main Street Pavement to be Completed This Week.

There was a dearth of red-headed girls in the east end this morning, there being more than a dozen (so many) white horses to go around. Contractor Peter commenced work on grading Maumee avenue for the new pavement today and at 7 o'clock nine teams and about twenty-five men were on hand ready to commence work as soon as the city engineer could give them the grade. Of the nine teams, four were all white, and of the other five, one horse in each team was white, making thirteen white horses all told, and not a red-headed girl in sight.

Work was commenced at the corner of Maumee and Walton avenues, and after the "rippers" got fairly started more men and more teams will be put on the job. Mr. Peter says he proposes to show up the fastest job of street grading ever done in the city and will have the whole pavement completed a long time before cold weather comes. The curbing has been set from Walton avenue to Waller street and can be finished all the way to Maumee street in a few days, easily keeping ahead of the graders. The work of tearing up the old street for two squares will be what Mr. Roosevelt would call a strenuous undertaking. The street is built of macadam, broken flint rock, gravel, cement, scrap iron, cinders and Spalding's glue, and is harder than the rock of ages. It will have to be pulled apart with forceps and will feel like tunding the pyramids. When the old cedar block pavement is reached things will come easier.

Contractor Moellering will complete the Main street pavement along about Thursday or Friday, and when finished the thoroughfare will be one of the best looking brick streets in the city. The question of durability on the present foundation is another matter and one about which there is considerable question in the minds of many.

JUMPED FROM A TRAIN.

A. Hibbens, a clerk in the office of the Pennsylvania company, was painfully injured, in jumping from a train this morning. Mr. Hibbens was at the east yards and boarded a passenger train to ride to the city. Before the train stopped he alighted, and was thrown with frightful force to the ground. His head struck upon some object, cutting an extensive scalp wound, and he also suffered a painful contusion of the hip. The injured man was removed to his home on Swinney avenue, where Dr. C. B. Stemen dressed his injuries.

REV. SPELLMAN HOME.

Rev. R. D. Spellman, the aged M. E. minister who underwent an operation for appendicitis recently at St. Joseph hospital, has sufficiently recovered to be removed to his home on Clay street, and this was done last evening. Dr. Spellman is nearly ninety years of age. He has been under the care of Dr. C. B. Stemen.

LAIRD.

Harriet B. Laird, an inmate of the Indiana school for feeble minded youth, died at that institution this morning at the age of 35 years. 4 months and 19 days. Death was due to pelvic abscess.

The remains are to be shipped to Crawfordsville for interment.

LOCAL LINES.

Frank W. Willis, publisher of the Waterloo Press, is in the city.

Miss Shantz, who gave a reading at Masonic Temple last evening, left this morning for Chicago.

August Woschaker, of the street car office, has been advanced to night clerk at that institution.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Coyle leave tomorrow for South Dakota on a hunting trip. They will be absent three weeks.

B. Charles, a Pennsylvania brakeman, had the index finger of his left hand mashed in an accident this morning.

The Misses Lizzie Schoole and Theresa Woschaker have returned from Peru, where they were the guests of their friend, Miss Nellie Holland.

Base Ball News.

The Shamrocks defeated the Columbia City Maroons at League park yesterday afternoon in a game that was interesting from the time the first ball crossed the plate until the last batsman was out. The visitors brought down several hundred rooters, who were quite noisy in the early stages of the game, but after the third inning they subsided and were heard only when they called Umpire Moran wicked names. There were about 1,000 people in attendance, and pandemonium would break loose once in awhile when one set of rooters would attempt to drown the cries of the other. Both teams played fine ball, the visiting nine being undoubtedly the best amateur team that has played here this year with the exception of the Giants. Nill, Clark, Goff and Smith distinguished themselves, and Robbino pitched his usual steady game. But eight hits were made off him, while Wagner, the Oseian phenom, who pitched for the visitors, was touched up for fifteen. Every player on the visiting team is a non-resident of Columbia City, two of their best men, Smick and Collins, being from this city.

A dispute arose over a decision in the eighth inning that nearly ended with trouble. The visitors were at bat, one of their men being on first, when the batsman popped up a high one, which Third baseman Clark went after. He dropped it and threw it to second and it was returned to first, completing a double play. The Columbia City captain claimed that but one man was out, and threatened to take his team off the field. In order not to shorten the game, and because the visitors' share of the gate receipts had been paid, his claim was allowed, although it was contrary to the rules and against the decision of the umpire. Section 9 of rule 32 expressly states that if more than one base is occupied and the batsman pops up an infield fly he is out if the fielder merely touches it without catching it. The Columbia City batsman loafed to first, otherwise he would have been safe and a double would have been impossible. As it was his slowness left an opening for a double play, which the Shamrocks very quickly took advantage of. The score:

SEASON IS CLOSING.

The base ball season is now rapidly drawing to a close, two weeks more seeing the end of the American association schedule, the first of the three major leagues to give up the ghost. Then will come the American league, the National being the last to quit the season, closing October 4. In the National league the race for the pennant has long ago been settled, Pittsburgh winning in a walk before the season was half over, and the only question now is whether the Pirates will be able to break all records in the number of games won in an eight-club league, with chances strongly in favor of the champions. The 100 mark is what the club is aiming at and with 94 games already won and 12 more to play it requires only an even break for the Pittsburghers to establish a new record. Of course, it is not likely that all the postponed games can be played so as to complete the 140 scheduled games and it is also true that Pittsburgh has been losing rather easily during the past few weeks, but at that it is safe to predict that they will be able to chalk down six more victories before Christmas and win the coveted honor. In the American league the quarry has not yet been run to his lair, but the logical winner of the bunting in that league is Philadelphia, with Boston still figuring. St. Louis was in the game until a few days ago, when Detroit bumped her once very hard and two games were postponed. St. Louis is now out of the figuring and the best that Chicago, last year's champions, can do is to stick in fourth place, trailing the first division. In the American association a very pretty race is on, with Louisville and Indianapolis straining for the lead. Indianapolis has it by about an inch at this writing, but is pausing to keep from running over by Louisville, whom it passed only a day or two ago. The race between the two has been interesting for a month. St. Paul will land in third place and Toledo will land about a mile below the bottom, with a record of having lost more games in a 140-game schedule than any professional club ever organized. Toledo wanted to get into fast company, and it got there.

The games yesterday were few in the National league, Pittsburgh winning a 18-error game from St. Louis and Chicago losing both games of a double-header to Cincinnati on Chicago grounds. The combined attendance was 12,900. In the American league St. Louis took two excellent games from Cleveland, and Chicago and Detroit broke even. An Adrian student pitched for Detroit in the game they won, with 6 errors behind him. The writer saw this same student, whose name is Kissinger, pitch for Detroit last Wednesday, and while he lost the game, he pitched some. Kissinger is a trifle over two yards high and his arms and legs seem fastened on to him with swivels. He walks considerably like an ostrich and chews tobacco by the bale, but that boy has come speed. Last Wednesday was the first time he ever appeared in fast company and he wasn't worried a bit. He is a "rube" to a finish, but when he lets go of a ball it's going somewhere or will bust something. When he learns to control his delivery a bit, and provided he don't pitch his arm off the first year, he will prove one of the greatest finds in recent years. The attendance at the two cities was 25,800. In the American association double-headers were played at Minneapolis and Milwaukee and other games were played at Kansas City and St. Paul. For the leaders Indianapolis lost and Louisville broke even with Milwaukee. None of the games presented any unusual features and the aggregate attendance was 7,131. Milwaukee being low with 200. The scores follow:

--National League--
Cincinnati, 2; Chicago, 1.
Cincinnati, 8; Chicago, 6.
Pittsburgh, 9; St. Louis, 6.
--American League-- Detroit, 11; Chicago, 10.

THE MARKETS.
Chicago, Sept. 15.—Prices of speculative commodities on the board of trade at the opening today showed a slight upward tendency in spite of a fairly good array of bearish influences. In wheat the cables were steady to lower, world's supplies were large, there was a decided improvement in northwestern receipts and the weather was warmer and favorable. Trade was not large, but there was a fairly good demand, much of it from shorts who were thought to have oversold Saturday. September wheat opened unchanged to 1/4c up at 72 3/4c to 72 1/2c, sold to 73 1/4c and soon advanced near 73c. December opened unchanged at 68 3/4c, sold to 68 1/2c and held near 68 1/2c to 68 3/4c early. Local receipts were 248 cars, 7 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 1,230 cars, making a total for the three points of 1,506 cars, against 903 last week and 2,411 cars for two days a year ago. A good short demand developed and strength in corn helped wheat later. December, after dipping to 68 3/4c@68 1/2c, closed firm. Corn also acted somewhat active. Receipts were 250 cars, 57 of contract grade. Frosts were reported in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, but no damage was noted early. December started 1/4c up at 43 1/2c and held steady for some time. September opened 1/4c down at 58 1/2c, but jumped to 59 1/2c and held steady near 59c. Frost reports came in as the session advanced and was the leading bullish influence in corn. The country bought moderately and prices advanced. September closed easy, 1/4c off, at 58 1/2c. December closed firm, 1/4c up, at 43 1/2c. Oats were easier on improved receipts and better grading, 200 cars arrived today, 10 of contract grade, and 57 cars of standard grade were turned out of private houses. Trade early, however, was not brisk. December opened 1/4c to 1/2c off at 31 1/2c to 31c, rallied to 31 1/2c but sold again at 31 1/4c@31 1/2c.

Provisions opened quiet but firm in sympathy with hogs. Later, however, hogs eased off and put a check on trade and the advance. January pork opened 5@7 1/2c up at $15.17 1/2 to $15.20; January lard started 5c higher at $8.60 to $8.67 1/2, dipped to $8.60 and regained $8.62 1/2@8.65, and January ribs opened 2 1/2c up at $8.00.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows: Wheat—Sept., 73 3/4c; Dec., 69c; May, 70 1/4c@70 3/4c. Corn—Sept., 68 3/4c; Oct., 65c; Dec., 43 1/2c; May, 44 1/2c. Oats—Sept., 33 3/4c; old, 26c; Dec., 31 1/4c@31 1/2c; old, 20 1/2c; May, 31 1/2c. Pork—Sept., $10.75; Oct., $10.90, Jan., $11.87@15.20. Lard—Sept., $10.97 1/2; Oct., $9.07 1/2; Jan., $8.07 1/2; May, $8.22 1/2@8.25. Ribs—Sept., $9.95; Oct., $10.27 1/2; Jan., $8.00; May, $7.72 1/2. Flax—Cash N. W., $1.35; S. W., $1.38; Sept., $1.25 1/2; Oct., $1.38. Rye—Sept., 49 1/2c; Dec., 49c. Barley—Cash, 38@63c. Timothy—44 1/2c. Clover—$5.00.

MOTHER SECURES HER CHILD.

Mrs. Mary Rutledge, of Detroit, arrived in the city yesterday and was given the custody of her 7-year-old daughter, who was known locally as Louise Hunter. Some weeks ago Thomas Shamblin and wife were arrested and sent to jail, the man for jumping a boardbill at the Helekin house last spring and the woman for stealing several articles of clothing at the same time. Mrs. Shamblin was held to the grand jury and the man was sent to jail but later paid his fine. With the couple was a child, said to be their daughter, but which later developed was a daughter of Mrs. Rutledge, of Detroit, and had been carried away without the mother's consent. Deputy Sheriff Ryan made the last arrest and communication with the officers at Detroit established the fact that the Hunter girl and the Rutledge girl were the same. Mrs. Rutledge returned to her Detroit home with her daughter last night.

THE PROPER TREATMENT FOR A SPRAINED ANKLE.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. HIS TAXES ARE BOOSTED UP

ASSESSOR STILL PROBING ROTHSCHILD ESTATE.

Discovers $23,000 More Sequestered Property and Henry Rothschild Acknowledges Proofs.

When it comes down to tax ferrets County Assessor Eggenmann is what is known among the elite as Johnny-on-the-Spot. This morning he not only finished up discovering $23,000 of sequestered property and produced the proofs, but to clinch the little deal he secured the signature of the party to the return as made out by the assessor. The victim of the assessor's sleuthiness, so to speak, was Henry Rothschild. Mr. Eggenmann completed his proof on Saturday and this forenoon sent for Mr. Rothschild. At first Mr. Rothschild insisted that he had made a complete return, but when the assessor produced his data and pointed out the items that had been overlooked he was completely overcome, but shortly afterwards recovered and at the suggestion of his son signed the blank that the assessor had prepared for his signature. Originally Mr. Rothschild turned in $1,150 of personal property for taxation, to which Assessor Eggenmann added $10,000, and Mr. Rothschild appealed to the state board of review. The board sustained the assessor and the amount remained on the duplicate. Mr. Eggenmann immediately set about looking up other items which had come to his notice with the result that the record showed up $23,000 more in bonds, mortgage notes and judgments. As above stated when Mr. Rothschild saw the proofs he signed the return and the amount has now been placed on the books, raising his own return from $1,150 to $34,150.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

Judge Adair on Saturday, sitting as special judge, overruled a motion for a new trial in the Braunstrator will case.

Edith Koontz on Saturday filed a petition for divorce from George Koontz.

The Fort Wayne Trust company on Saturday was given judgment against the New Haven Telephone company for $357.91 on foreclosure and the property was ordered sold. William L. Moellering is the receiver. Judge Aiken today dismissed the complaint of Caroline Matthias vs. J. J. Matthias, to set aside certain deeds, at plaintiff's cost.

Ed C. Edgerton has filed a plat of Edgerton's addition to the town of Shirley City. The addition consists of fifty lots lying north of the Wash right of way.

The will of the late Ellen Frank was probated in the circuit court this morning. Both witnesses to the will are dead and the document had to be proved by the handwriting.

The county commissioners will meet on Wednesday, when among other business the final arrangements for the court house dedication will be approved.

The justices' courts drew a blank today.

Deputy Sheriff Wick was at Cincinnati yesterday visiting the home of his youth and calling on relatives and friends.

Sheriff Stout today received notification that Teresa Haller, recently adjudged insane, had been accepted by the hospital authorities at Richmond.

Daniel Small has qualified as executor of the will of the late Almira Small.

Mary Koch, over 16 and under 45, was committed to the home for feeble minded today by Judge O'Rourke.

Mary Gordon was today adjudged insane by a commission consisting of Justice Francis and Drs. Morgan, McHugh and McCaskey.

THE GRAND JURY.

The grand jury is still grinding away and there is no probability of even a partial report being given out today. This morning Mr. Mautner was examined in relation to the William Meyer base ball defalcation and one or two other witnesses were also up on the same mission. After that the Dr. Kannell malpractice charge was taken up and the day was spent in examining physicians in regard to the case.

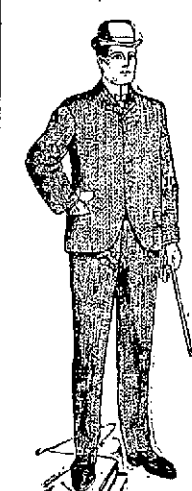

SICK WITH APPENDICITIS.

The patrol wagon was called this forenoon to remove the eighteen-year-old son of Dr. Shutt, of Columbia avenue, to St. Joseph hospital, where he will be operated on for appendicitis.

Stylish Fall Fashions for Men.

Not a day passes that does not bring to our tables and shelves some new and desirable articles of men's apparel. This week we opened several handsome lines of Gravenette Raincoats.

Some plain blacks and grey overcoats, and still absolutely waterproof. A seasonable garment.

$10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $22, MEN'S TOP COATS.

That nobby, stylish garment, so necessary for the next few weeks. They are very short, but afford ample protection. Light covers, fancy covert and cassimeres.

$10, $12, $15, $18

and every day adds to our already well-filled stock of

Men's Black and Fancy Suits.

We are egotistical enough to think that in high grade, superior tailored, perfect fitting suits we are unapproachable. To the well-made, stylish, black, unfinished worsteds particular attention is called. They look like some good custom tailor's work.

$15, $18, $20, $22.

IN FANCY SUITS

Our line comprises most of the seasons novelties--many confined to us. Browns, Greys, Greens and Olives predominate in these handsome mixtures. $10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $22. Fall hats, fall shirts, fall underwear, fall gloves ready now.

CLERK PROMOTED

PENNSYLVANIA AND ADAMS EXPRESS MEN IN LUCK.

REIBER IS HOGAN'S CLERK

JAMES B. STEMMEN GOES TO AGENT BECKER'S OFFICE.

COMPLETES A TRIP WHICH COMMENCED IN JULY.

Louis C. Steger, for two or three years clerk in Foreman H. T. Hogan's office at the Pittsburgh machine shop, resigned Saturday night and this morning he took a position in the main office building at the Fort Wayne Electric works. The change is made because of the inducements in the way of chance for promotion and salary that the new position offers. Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock, of the Pennsylvania, has filled the vacancy in Mr. Hogan's department by the promotion of J. Reiber, a clerk in the main shop clerk's office. The position vacated by Mr. Reiber has not yet been filled, but it will be in a day or two and civil service rules will probably be adopted. Messrs. Steger and Reiber are good fellows and their advancement is matter for general approval by all who know them.

BIG SHIPMENT OF OIL PUMPS.

Saturday some of the finest shipments of oil pumps that have taken place from this city for several months occurred from the Bowser Oil Tank works. One consignment was to Newark, N. J., and it consisted of twenty-four nickel special pumps and sixteen first floor "gallon" pumps. These special pumps are among the finest ever built at the Bowser works. In fact they have no superiors and but very few equals anywhere. They are designed for use in drug stores where they are exposed to view and are really an ornament as well as a most useful receptacle and means of drawing oil for the retail trade. The other pumps were of the usual style for service in groceries and oil houses. They were consigned to parties in Schenectady, N. Y., and St. Louis. This is not the largest single day output from the Bowser works, but owing to the character of the pumps, it probably represents the greatest amount of cash involved in one day's business in the shipping department of that establishment.

WILL MEET HERE NEXT TIME.

Dr. C. D. Stemen, who returned from Pittsburgh Saturday, where he had been attending a meeting of the Association of Surgeons of the Pennsylvania railroads, announces that the next meeting of the association will be held in Fort Wayne. The association has several hundred members and the attendance at the meetings is usually upwards of fifty. Last Friday there were seventy-five in attendance. The next meeting of the association will be held in 1903. The officers are: President, Dr. L. S. McCurdy, of Pittsburgh; vice president, Dr. G. W. Thompson, of Wilmington, Ohio; secretary and treasurer, Dr. R. J. Morgan, of Van Wert, Ohio. At the meeting last Friday, Dr. Stemen read a paper on "Anesthetics."

UTILIZING THE EXPRESS.

One of the best patrons of the express companies who do business in Fort Wayne is the Fort Wayne Electric company. Yesterday this company sent to Boston, by Adams express, a dynamo which weighed 4,600 pounds and received through the same agency 5,000 pounds of sheet steel from Tacoma, Pa. It is nothing out of the ordinary for the Electric people to send dynamo by express, but the receipt of rough stock like the Tacoma product is an uncommon occurrence. The works are short of some kinds of stock and sheet steel was one of them.

CHANGE AT ADAMS OFFICE.

The resignation of Claude R. Notestine as office clerk of the Adams Express company has resulted in a couple of promotions. Agent G. E. Becker has called James B. Stemen, formerly clerk at the depot office of the company, to the place vacated by Notestine. George Thieme has been assigned to the position at the depot, which Stemen vacated. Ross Scott and Otto Newell, of this city, have been employed by the company and are now engaged in relaying cisterns between Crestline and Chicago.

WILL HAVE SPECIAL CAR.

General Lawton post, G. A. R., will go to Washington in grand style on the occasion of the Grand Army encampment. Arrangements were effected Saturday night, whereby the post will have a special car on Pennsylvania train No. 8 and will leave this city on the evening of October 3. The company has made a rate of $12.70 for the old soldiers.

THE ACCIDENTS.

Two freight trains climbed the rails in the Pittsburgh yards last night and blocked the tracks at that point for awhile. The Pennsylvania wreck car was at Lima, engaged in picking up wrecked cars, and the car belonging to the Wabash company was borrowed to put the cars in the yards on the rails.

W. J. Kelley, a fireman on the Nickel Plate, is in a Chicago hospital suffering from injuries received while out on the road Friday night, with Engineer Frank Tolley. While the train, which was west bound, was a siding at the yard office and Operator Nor and while Kelley was out on the pilot covering up the head light, he was struck by some protruding piece on the passing train and knocked down. He was taken to Stony Island and thence to Chicago. While painful, his injuries will not be permanent. Mr. Kelley has been employed on the road only a short time. John Brenneke, also a Nickel Plate fireman, is off duty with a sprained wrist, the result of a fall John McNulty, of the Western Gas Construction works, who has been laying off for a few days with a lame wrist, was surprised to find that the joint was dislocated and that he will probably be off duty for some time on account of the accident. Dr. George Thieme attended him.

Engineer H. A. Durnell, of the Pennsylvania, had his head injured Saturday while at work in the cab. He was getting ready to go out on his trip when the accident happened. Mr. Durnell had only reported for duty that morning, having been off as the result of injuries received in the Wallen wreck.

O. H. Compton, a former resident near Bourbon, Ind., was struck and killed by a Pennsylvania freight train yesterday. He was walking on the tracks and stepped from one to the other just as the train came up at his rear.

E. F. Reese, a truckman in the Pittsburgh freight house, had one of his feet painfully bruised yesterday by a heavy crate falling upon it.

Louis Gase, of the Pittsburgh store room, is off duty nursing two very sore fingers, the result of an accident Saturday. E. Kampmann, the boiler-maker's helper who had an eye injured last week at the Wabash shops, has gone to the company's hospital at Springfield to receive treatment from the company's oculist.

FRANK SARVER RETURNS.

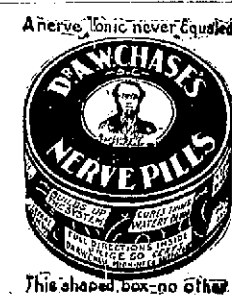

The "attentional tour" of the ten gentlemen appointed by the Pennsylvania motive power officials to travel over all the Pennsylvania lines and visit and consult with the various foremen and heads of the boiler plants, with a view of settling a problem relating to lines, came to a close last Saturday, when H. F. Sarver, foreman of the boiler shops in this city, arrived home. The party started out July 22, and during their journey they visited every important shop of the Pennsylvania and many of those of other lines. They were in Buffalo, Del., Washington, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Baltimore, Wheeling, Newark, Jersey City, New York, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, Richmond, Terre Haute and Chicago, where Pennsylvania shops are located. They also visited the shops of all the leading railroads in Chicago and Milwaukee and Grand Rapids. Mr. Sarver says the committee was courteously received everywhere and was provided with special cars occasionally in making trips. Their report, which is now in the hands of the stenographer who accompanied the gentlemen on the journey, will be voluminous and when it is in shape, the committee will meet again and present it to the officials, which will close their duties in this connection.

T. J. RODABAUGH RETURNS.

T. J. Rodabaugh, foreman of the paint department of the western division of the Pennsylvania, came home yesterday morning, from Boston, Mass., where he attended the thirty-third annual convention of the National Car and Locomotive Painters' association. The meeting was one of the best in point of attendance and character of proceedings the association ever held, there being at the meetings 114 regular delegates besides the motive power officials of some of the Boston roads, notably the Boston and Maine. Mr. Rodabaugh was placed upon two important committees, one being the next advisory committee whose duties will be to select and assign subjects for discussion at the next meeting, which will be held in Chicago next September. A pretty souvenir of the Boston meeting is a new design of crescent, enclosed in a nickel plated tube, with closed ends and about the size of an ordinary pocket knife.

ERECTING STRUCTURAL PIECES.

Contractor Sprunt commenced the erection of the iron beams and roof trusses of the Pennsylvania shops this morning and in a short time the brick masons will commence putting in the walls between the iron pillars. Work upon the building so far has been of a character hardly noticeable to the passer-by, but hereafter each day will bring a visible advance in the erection of the structure, particularly on that part of it which fronts on

CHANGE IN OPERATIONS.

The Nickel Plate has made some changes in the ranks of its operators. Operator Schulz has gone to Lattin; E. H. Chambliss is chief day operator at the yard office and Operator Nor is working there at night. Operator F. H. Logan, of the main office, is taking his vacation and Operator J. H. Dale is filling his place. Operator R. K. Currie is on the night force at the main office.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pittsburg fireman C. Harlick is sick and off duty.

Brakeman E. Morrison, who was sick a few days, reported for work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Karl Miller and Jacob Bach, of the Pittsburgh shops, are looking after some private business today.

E. H. Scheffer this morning took a position as brakeman on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road.

E. C. Turner, special machinist of the Pittsburgh, is in Crestline on business for the company today.

Homor Roelck is now employed in the Pittsburgh blacksmith shop. He formerly worked in the company's freight house.

W. H. Dawkins, assistant lumber yards foreman of the Pittsburgh, has gone to the country for a short visit with relatives.

Fred Grime, a car builder at the East car shops, has as his guest Theodore Parney, a well-to-do farmer of Fulton county, Ohio.

A. Gerard, L. P. Klien and J. K. Grimes, of the Pittsburgh blacksmith shop, are on duty again after an absence on account of sickness.

J. H. Stuck and S. O. Cronley are new men at the Electric works, the former in the transformer and the latter in the laboratory department.

J. L. Walton, who quit his position in the Pittsburgh round house last Saturday, has gone to Lima, where he expects to find work and reside in the future.

It is settled that Western roads will make reduced rates to all points visited by President Roosevelt from stations within a radius of seventy-five miles.

W. W. Todd, chief car inspector of the Pennsylvania, returned this morning from a business trip to Pittsburgh, which kept him there three or four days.

The Lake Shore will build a large freight house at West Cleveland and improve its terminal facilities at that point at a cost of several thousand dollars.

The Lake Shore and the Nickel Plate roads expect to handle 7,000 car loads of grapes this season. The traffic is now on, but it has not yet reached its height.

Clerk H. A. Philley, of Road Foreman C. H. Colmery's office, resumed those duties at noon today, after a vacation, most of which was spent quiet at his home.

General Superintendent H. L. Magee, of the Wabash, in his special car, will be on the Continental limited this afternoon. It is not known whether he will stay here or not.

Shop Clerk George Swearingen, of the Toledo branch of the Pennsylvania system, was in the city yesterday and today, visiting his parents and looking after some railway matters.

The statement is made that the Truck Line association has practically agreed to issue an interchangeable interchange book that shall be good on any road in the association.

Mrs. Robert Anderson, of Warsaw, is a guest at the home of Watchman W. C. Hamman, of the Pittsburgh and Broadway crossing. Mrs. Hamman is the daughter of Mrs. Anderson.

Chief Clerk J. H. Evans and Carpenter Foreman Harry Evans, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, have resumed their respective duties, after a week's vacation. The latter was in Marshall, Wis.

Electrician A. C. Davis and Machinist Thomas Cook are out on the road in the interest of the Pennsylvania company, the former being in St. Louis and the latter in Cleveland.

Robert Casterline, an apprentice who had two fingers on his right hand badly cut and bruised last Friday, at the Wabash shops, will go to the company's hospital at Peru tonight.

Master Car Builder J. A. Graham resumed his office duties at the Pittsburgh shops this morning. His stenographer, Ed Pfeiffer, who was spending a vacation in Ohio, also reported for work this morning.

The projectors of the Cincinnati, Richmond & Muncie are confident that trains will be running into Hammond, Ind., by January 1. At that point they connect with the Indiana Western over which they can reach Chicago.

Twenty men who had been working in the pines in Michigan during the summer, passed through the city last night, en route for Pennsylvania. They are anthracite coal miners and went north at the beginning of the strike to work.

Captain H. S. Harrod, who came here yesterday to meet his wife, left with her last evening for their home in Buffalo. Mrs. Harrod came here two or three weeks ago to see her father, the late George Scott, and remained here until yesterday.

E. E. Clark, grand chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors, and W. J. Maxwell, grand secretary, were in Pittsburgh last week in conference with the local committee in anticipation of holding the convention of the order in that city next year.

Bellevue Gazette: "The Nickel Plate freight situation continues to improve. This is evident from the fact that there are now twenty-seven through freight crews in service between Bellevue and Conneaut. A few weeks ago there were but twenty-two crews."

Blacksmith Henry Buckley, of the Wabash shops, is sick and off duty.

Nickel Plate brakeman J. E. Laue is sick and off duty. Brakeman F. H. Wolf is also on the sick list.

Fred Wilson, of Grand Forks, N. D., is the guest of his parents and brothers in this city. Fred is now in the newspaper business.

Vincent W. Dawson, a clerk in Supl. J. H. McKim's office, resumed those duties this morning. He was away on a vacation trip.

Engine 334, which received general repairs in the Wabash shops in this city, was turned over to the Detroit division this morning.

Thomas Kinney, a pipe fitter, resigned his position in the Wabash shops this morning, having worked there less than three weeks.

William Becker, foreman of thimble and state rosters of the Chicago Terminal division of the Pennsylvania, was the guest of Fort Wayne friends and relatives yesterday.

Boiler Foreman B. P. Sarver, of the Pittsburgh, expects his mother and his sister, Mrs. John Vening, of Pittsburgh on Pennsylvania train No. 9 tomorrow evening. Mrs. Sarver will probably spend the winter here with her son.

Local Freight Conductor D. Denbro, of the Nickel Plate, is taking a lay off and Conductor VanMeter has charge of the train in the meantime. Conductor Ed Handel laid off yesterday for the purpose of fishing in the Kankakee river.

Pierce Landers has resigned as engineer of maintenance of way of the Wisconsin Central, and is succeeded by J. J. Drummond, son of the late Judge Drummond. Mr. Landers goes to Indianapolis as engineer of maintenance of way of the Belt and Union tracks.

A part of a monster fly wheel, built for a rolling mills company at McKeesport, left the Bass works this morning. Two large steel sheets for the American Clay Working Machinery company, of Willoughby, Ohio, were loaded at the Bass works for shipment this morning.

Machinist Thomas Blythe returned home Saturday evening, and this morning resumed work at the bench in the Bass shops, after an absence of ten weeks. He was setting up and putting in operation a big steam plant at Monessen, Pa., the machinery for which was built at the Bass shops.

E. A. Hitebeck, of Findlay, Ohio, who with his wife has been visiting at the home of Chief Freight Clerk C. M. Jones, of the Pittsburgh, went to Chicago this morning for a short visit before returning to his home. Mr. Hitebeck was formerly employed in a clerical way at the Pittsburgh freight office.

Conductor Samuel Grable, who spent the summer at Rome City, where he has a cottage, resumed his old place in the train service of the Nickel Plate today. Business on the road is picking up somewhat and the men who took a lay off during the dull mid-summer months are being rapidly called in.

It is announced that the long-talked-of road from Sandusky, to Maumee is to be built, and that it is backed by the Grand Rapids & Indiana, a Pennsylvania line. It is stated that trains will be in operation over it within twelve months. It is further stated that the Algoma Central will work in connection with the new line.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will White, of 542 Wallace street, a daughter. The father is an air brake inspector at the east yards of the Pittsburgh. Of course he is jubilant over the advent of the little one, but his feelings in this way do not exceed those of Ed and George White, who are mules for the first time and who are as proud of the little girl as are her parents.

Blacksmith Fred Lopez, of the Pittsburgh shops, had a painful and large growth removed from the sole of his right foot last Saturday. Dr. Seidick being the operating surgeon, Mr. Lopez will be off duty several weeks on account of the wounded foot, but it is believed that the member will completely heal and that he will have no more trouble from that source.

The big punch mentioned in these columns Saturday, was set up in the Wabash boiler shops yesterday and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, it was given a trial as far as possible. All the dies are not in shape for work yet, but enough have been completed to demonstrate the capabilities of the punch end of the machine. The shears were immediately placed in operation and work perfectly.

NASAL CATARRH quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. A remedy for Nasal Catarrh which is drying or exciting to the diseased membrane should not be used. Cream Balm is recognized as a specific. Price 35 cents at druggists or by mail. A cold in the head immediately disappears when Cream Balm is used. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The crutch is a poor substitute for legs, and affords a very inconvenient and tiresome mode of locomotion. There is no more pathetic sight than a person slowly and painfully moving along the street supported by these artificial limbs.

When Rheumatism settles in the bones and muscles of the legs, it is safe to predict that the victim will eventually become helpless and crutch-bound. The corrosive, irritating matter that is deposited in the joints and muscles causes the most intense pain, the knees and ankles swell, and when the natural oils and fluids that lubricate these parts are completely destroyed the joints become locked and the muscles drawn and stiff, and crutches a necessity.

The acid poisons that produce rheumatic pains form in the blood, and are distributed through the system, and lodged in the arms, shoulders, hands, back and feet, or other parts of the body—resulting often in total disability. A permanent cure of Rheumatism can be effected only by a complete cleansing of the blood, and no other remedy so surely accomplishes this as S. S. S. It neutralizes the acid effects, purifies and invigorates the stagnant blood, and the gritty particles are washed out or dislodged by the new rich blood, and relief comes to the pain-racked sufferer. S. S. S. leaves no morbid, irritating matter in the blood to reunite and produce another attack, but expels every atom of it from the system. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, and does not impair the digestion or general health like alkali or potash remedies.

Write for our special free book on Rheumatism, and if any medical advice or other information is wanted, our physicians will gladly furnish it without charge.

The friends of Miss Maud Jamison, formerly of this city, will be surprised to learn of her marriage to Norman Miller, of Tinton, N. J., in Noblesville, Ind., September 14, in the presence of only relatives. Mr.
and Mrs. Miller left immediately on a wedding trip to his home in the east. Mr. Miller is quite well known in this city, as he travels for a large eastern concern.

INTEREST INCREASES.

A great audience, estimated at over one thousand people, crowded into the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ last night, and many were turned away unable to gain entrance. A large chorus of sixty voices under the direction of Prof. Kendall led the song service.

Evangelist Wilson preached a stirring sermon on "Remission of Sins." During the day twenty-three persons were forward to make the confession of faith and unite with the church. At the afternoon service nearly five hundred children brought pieces of twine and watched with eager interest as the evangelist bound the strings about a boy, forcibly illustrating the power of habit.

This evening a score of persons will be baptised. On Wednesday night
there will be another special service,
when the evangelist has announced that he will discuss the subject, "If Jesus Came to Fort Wayne What Would He See and Hear?" It promises to be a startling sermon.

Mr. Howard L. Rous, of Frankfort, Ind., has purchased a piece of property on Third street and will go into the drug business. The consideration was $2,200. Mr. I. G. Kilpatrick purchased the L. H. Gurry residence on Gay street for $1,500. Mrs. Elizabeth Hazzard has purchased a residence on Fletcher avenue for $1,800.
The deals were all carried on through the Gregg Davis Real Estate Agency.

FAIL TO CANCEL THE CLAIMS

CONTRACTORS ARE SAID TO BE CARELESS.

Complaint Is Made to Comptroller—General News About the City Hall.

Complaint is made to the comptroller that paying and other contractors are in the habit of collecting their improvement assessments and neglecting to cancel the claim on the assessment rolls, thus leaving the original assessment stand as a lien against the property. This leaves a cloud on the title which is bound to show up on the abstract. An important real estate deal was held up since last Friday because one contractor failed to satisfy the assessment roll after collecting the assessment, and it is stated that the same contractor has unsatisfied assessments collected ten years ago. The comptroller says that he has no voice in the matter and that while he believes the trouble arises through pure carelessness, it is the duty of the property owner to see to it that the assessment is properly cancelled
when he pays the assessment.

The new pumping engine at waterworks station No. 2 will probably be given a preliminary test some time this week as Contractor Derheimer expects to get the connections all made before Saturday. The engine itself, while over a month behind time, netting the city something like $750 in forfeitures, has been ready to start for considerably over a week.

NOTES AT CITY HALL.
The building team for the season is evidently on its last legs, there not having been a building permit issued since last Thursday.

A new case of smallpox was reported on Saturday, the patient being Mrs. F. W. Kelsey at 1115 Michigan avenue.

A new case of diphtheria was reported this morning at 2026 Hanna street.

The finance committee will meet with the comptroller this evening to pass upon a number of matters referred to them at the last council meeting.

MILLER.

John Miller, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller, of 332 West De-Wald street, died at 8:20 o'clock Sunday evening from pneumonia, at the age of five months.

Funeral services will be held privately from the residence tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The remains will be placed temporarily in the receiving vault at Lindenwood and

THE ONLY PRACTICAL AND DURABLE CAKE MOULD MADE. Being solid, they cannot leak batter, as the loose-bottom pans do, and they are more durable, and easier to operate, and the cake can be removed as easily as from any other pan, by inserting a knife through the openings at the sides to loosen it. This does away with the disagreeable work of greasing pans and produces that light, delicate cake with no greasy crust which everybody knows is the most delicious and the most healthful.
We are the selling agents in Fort Wayne for all of Mrs. Van Deusen's Kitchen Helpers.
